

EARLY REPORT #3 ON FIRST-TIME-IN-COLLEGE ADMISSIONS AS OF June 30, 2004

- As of June 30, 2004, SUS institutions had received applications for summer or fall admission from 87,945 first-time-in-college (FTIC) applicants.
- Of these applicants, 19.9% were black and 15.8% were Hispanic.
- Of the 87,945 applicants, 59,565, or 67.7%, have been offered admission and the others were either denied admission or are awaiting a decision.
- Of the admitted students, 16.2% are black and 15.9% are Hispanic. This compares to 16.8% black and 15.1% Hispanic admits in fall 2003. A detailed breakdown of the race/ethnicity of admitted students is attached.