Public Awareness &
Recruitment Campaign

Workforce Education Public Awareness & Recruitment Campaign

- Aimed at modernizing the image of Career Education
- Need for campaign was identified by Career Education Task Force, chaired by Lt. Governor Jennings
- Commissioner Winn made it a priority in his Four Point Plan for Career Education titled “Today’s Students, Tomorrow’s Workforce” that was released in August at an EFI board meeting

Workforce Education Public Awareness & Recruitment Campaign

- Campaign titled “I Always Wanted To...Always Starts Today”
- Special Workforce Education Web pages and toll-free hotline have been created
- Phase One includes billboards, bus shelter signs, and radio announcements
- Phase Two will add television ads using “success stories” from WE programs, as well as have a Spanish and Creole component
