EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

This rule is amended to adopt new certification forms which have been revised to include the new federal reporting requirements for ethnicity and race. The three sections of the application relating to the reporting of sealed/expunged records, criminal history records, and professional sanctions have been revised to include an expanded series of relevant questions for each section that must be answered by a yes/no response. The questions have been identified by legal counsel and the Bureau of Professional Practices Services as necessary for full disclosure of information.
