Contributing factors to achieve 100% AYP:

- Focused on a four-year process, showing improvement each year
- Provided four extra hours of instruction per week for students in grades 3-5
 - Students stayed two additional hours after school every Tuesday and Thursday to work with their regular classroom teacher on individual learning needs
- Administration and teachers constantly reviewed data to group and regroup students according to need
- High expectations were continual topic of conversation with staff
 - Principal delivered daily message to build belief in students on the morning news
- Parents were required to come to school to pick up report cards every nine weeks and have a mini-conference so that the school can provide parents with suggestions to help their children succeed
 - If parents were not able to make it to school, principal would deliver report cards to home – Dr. Cagle has not had to deliver a report card to a home for two years, 100% participation
