District-Level Leadership

District-level administrators must look at schools on an individual basis and distribute resources based on students’ and teachers’ levels of need. To describe the district system for monitoring reading instruction that differentiates school-level services, please address the following.

1. Districts should match or exceed the State Board goals for increasing FSA-ELA achievement by six percentile points, increasing the percentage of students making learning gains on the FSA-ELA by seven percentile points and reducing the achievement gap for the identified sub groups on the FSA-ELA by at least one-third by 2020. Please fill out the charts below with the actual results from the 2015-2016 and 2016-2017 FSA-ELA and the interim district goals for 2020 identified in the 2017-2018 Comprehensive Reading Plan.

Research-Based Reading Instruction Allocation

As per Section 1011.62(c), F.S., funds allocated under this subsection must be used to provide a system of comprehensive reading instruction to students enrolled in the K-12 programs, which may include the following:

- An additional hour per day of intensive reading instruction to students in the 300 lowest-performing elementary schools by teachers and reading specialists who are effective in teaching reading;
- Kindergarten through grade 5 reading intervention teachers to provide intensive intervention during the school day and in the required extra hour for students identified as having a reading deficiency;
- Highly qualified reading coaches to specifically support teachers in making instructional decisions based on student data and improve teacher delivery of effective reading instruction, intervention and reading in the content areas based on student need;
- Professional development for school district teachers in evidence-based reading instruction, including strategies to teach reading in content areas with an emphasis on technical and informational text;
- Summer reading camps, using only teachers or other district personnel who are certified or endorsed in reading consistent with Section 1008.25(7)(b)(3), F.S., for all students in kindergarten through grade 2 who demonstrate a reading deficiency as determined by district and state assessments, and students in grades 3 through 5 who score at Level 1 on the statewide, standardized English Language Arts (ELA) assessment;
- Supplemental instructional materials that are grounded in evidence-based reading research; and
- Intensive interventions for students in kindergarten through grade 12 who have been identified as having a reading deficiency or who are reading below grade level as determined by the statewide, standardized English Language Arts assessment.

Identification of Students with Reading Deficiencies and Intervention Supports

In this section districts will describe how they identify students with substantial reading deficiencies and provide them with required interventions. Districts will create three Identification/Intervention Decision Tree charts to demonstrate how data from screening, diagnostic, progress monitoring, local assessments, statewide assessments or teacher observations will be used to determine specific reading instructional needs and interventions for students. It is important to note that a school may not wait for a student to receive a failing grade at the end of a grading period to identify the student as having a substantial deficiency in reading. If a local assessment is being used for identification, districts should internally analyze their data in order to ensure students are identified at similar rates as on statewide assessments. Districts who use a procured diagnostic, progress monitoring or assessment tool should, at a minimum, use the recommended ranges provided by the instrument developer; however, these districts should also ensure that rates of identification correlate to statewide performance.

- DT1 – Elementary (K-5)
- DT2 – Middle (6-8)
- DT3 – High (9-12)

The charts must contain the following information:

- The grade level(s) of the student;
- Name and performance benchmark on screening, diagnostic, progress monitoring, local assessment, statewide assessment or teacher observations used to identify students with substantial deficiencies in reading and subsequent interventions provided. FSA-ELA scores must be used for appropriate grade levels;
- DT1 must clearly state the conditions the district uses to determine whether a student has a substantial reading deficiency and will subsequently notify the student’s parent as required in Section 1008.25, F.S. This also includes a description of the intensive, explicit, systematic, and multisensory reading interventions which will be provided to students in grades K-3;
- DT1 must include information on how the Florida Kindergarten Readiness Screener will be used to plan intervention for students scoring in the following performance levels:
  1) Scaled score of 497-529
  2) Scaled score of 438-496
  3) Scaled score of 437 and below; and
- An explanation of how instruction will be modified for students who have not responded to a specific reading intervention with the initial intensity (time and group size) provided;

| PHONOLOGICAL AWARENESS                         | • Recognizing rhyming words.
• Counting, pronouncing, segmenting syllables into phonemes (e.g., hunt > /h/ /u/ /n/ /t/); blending individual phonemes, consonant blends, onsets and rimes into words (e.g., /d/ /o/ /g/ > dog; /t/ /r/ /u/ /ck/ > truck; /s/ + /um/ > sum, /g/ + /um/ > gum, /dr/ + /um/ > drum)
• Isolating and pronouncing initial, medial, and final phonemes in spoken single-syllable words; replacing individual phonemes to make new words (e.g., hat > sat; cop > cap; grip > grit)

| COMPREHENSION          | • Base reading comprehension lessons on an accurate interpretation of the exact wording of the grade level CCSS with questions, text evidence, and correct answers (75% inferred and implied).
• Reading comprehension lessons should be a minimum of 50% of all reading instruction beginning in kindergarten and first grade.
• Teaching reading comprehension through standards-based questioning after reading text selections should require constructive, open-ended responses (OER), not selective, multiple-choice answers.
• Balance reading selections between the Literature and Informational genre standards and meet the CCSS criteria for increasingly complex text.
• Students should have elaborate rehearsal in the higher-level thinking and deductive reasoning required in close, text-dependent reading comprehension. Students must learn how to find accurate, relevant, explicit text evidence and cite the text evidence found to support inferred and implied correct answers to questions.
• Evaluation of students’ progress in reading comprehension performance should be based on a combination of a. finding and citing text evidence, and b. identifying correct answers to comprehension questions.
• Provide equity and consistency in the reading comprehension program across all grade levels, classrooms, and school campuses with the same high-level of comprehension questions for all recommended reading text selections.
• Provide reading teachers with an effective professional development program focused on the CCSS and close, text-dependent reading comprehension.                                                                 | http://mhreadingwonders.com/

300 Lowest-Performing Elementary School Additional Hour of Reading Instruction Implementation Plan

Please complete the following questions to be included as an addendum to the 2018-2019 K-12 District Comprehensive Reading Plan for all schools in your district who are on the list of 300 Lowest Performing Elementary Schools. A district may submit one set of answers for multiple schools in the district if every school is using the same implementation plan.

Section 1: Contact Information

1. District name: Polk County Public Schools
2. Contact name for schools covered on this plan: Ann Everett
3. Contact phone number: (863)534-0623
4. Contact email: ann.everett@polk-fl.net

Section 2: Length of School Day

F.A.C. Rule 6A-6.053 requires 90 minutes of reading instruction in grades K-5, and section 1011.62(9) F.S. requires an additional hour of reading instruction, which may be covered within the school day, for a minimum total of 150 minutes. Please answer the following questions regarding the length of the school day and the number of instructional minutes provided.

1. School start time: 8:00am
2. School dismal time: 3:00pm
3. Total number of instructional minutes per day: 390
4. Minutes per day of reading instruction (must be at least 150): 180

Section 3. Instructional Design

1. Students enrolled in these schools who earned a level 4 or level 5 on the statewide standardized English Language Arts assessment for the previous school year may participate in the extra hour of instruction. Describe the process your district/school uses to serve these students.

   Students earning a level score of 5 on the FSA ELA may opt out, and the school provides accelerated learning opportunities, such as book clubs, research projects or media productions.
2. The additional hour per day of intensive reading instruction must be provided by teachers and reading specialists who have demonstrated effectiveness in teaching reading. Describe the process your district/school uses to ensure this occurs.

The additional hour of instruction is provided by the regular classroom teachers on that grade level. In some cases, students are tiered and the students with the greatest need are placed with the teacher who has the greatest results as determined by state assessments and district progress monitoring data. The district monitors through the regional assistant superintendents reviewing each school’s master schedule and district instructional support with collaborative planning and walk-throughs throughout the school year.

3. The intensive reading instruction delivered in this additional hour shall include research-based reading instruction that has been proven to accelerate progress of students exhibiting a reading deficiency. Describe the intensive reading instruction your district/school uses during the additional hour and how your district/school has proven it to accelerate progress of students exhibiting a reading deficiency.

The research-based reading instruction includes small group rotations with teacher-led explicit instruction. Instruction is based on data and resources from STAR, Istation ISIP, district and teacher-made assessments. Intensive reading instruction includes phonics/phonemic awareness, fluency, vocabulary, reading comprehension and writing. This intensive reading instruction is based on state recommendations. The district evaluates the instructional practices and have evidence of accelerated progress based on the schools implementing with the fidelity. When examining last year’s data, there are 2 schools who have moved out of the lowest 300, 12 schools showed improved achievement based on the FSA ELA assessment, 8 of our schools showed improved learning gains based on the FSA ELA assessment, and 7 schools improved their 2018 school grade (one improving from an F to a C), while 20 out of 22 improved or maintained their school grade.

4. The intensive reading instruction delivered in this additional hour shall include differentiated instruction based on screening, diagnostic, progress monitoring, or student assessment data to meet students’ specific reading needs. Describe the process your district uses to ensure this occurs.

Differentiated instruction is based on assessment data from Istation reports (ISIP monthly), Star Early Literacy and/or Star Reading Reports (three times a year), weekly district and/or teacher-made assessments, and district-created progress monitoring writing assessments (three times a year). The district assures this process through providing and requiring these assessments and offering training and coaching support in the collection and analysis of data and how to use the data for differentiated instructional planning. The district also provides a computer-based platform, Unify/Performance Matters, so that district and school-based staff have access to state and district data for monitoring and driving instruction.

5. The intensive reading instruction delivered in this additional hour shall include explicit and systematic reading strategies to develop phonemic awareness, phonics, fluency, vocabulary, and comprehension, with more extensive opportunities for guided practice, error correction, and feedback. Describe the process your school/district uses to ensure this occurs.

Intensive instruction is determined based on Istation ISIP and Star reports that help to identify the students’ greatest deficit as it relates to phonemic awareness, phonics, fluency, vocabulary, and comprehension. The school/district monitors teacher plans, implementation, and student work samples. Students’ response to intervention will be discussed weekly during planning meetings to determine next steps.

6. The intensive reading instruction delivered in this additional hour shall include the integration of social studies, science, and mathematics-text reading, text discussion, and writing in response to reading. Describe the process your district uses to ensure this occurs.

The district provides information and resources through online resources and through professional development (such as school-based administrator and school-based instructional coach professional development). Social studies resources provided by the district include digital access to McGraw Hill Florida Social Studies curriculum, with Primary Sources and Leveled Texts that have integrated reading, discussion and writing activities. Schools have purchased leveled texts in social studies and science, and the district provides training for utilizing these resources in small groups and reading/discussion/writing centers. The district’s schools in the lowest 300 are required to submit lesson plans for the additional hour of instruction, which are monitoring by the school-based administrators and the district instructional support staff (regional area superintendents, senior director, director, curriculum specialists and district literacy coaches). Schools have also been given content area resources to use in the addition hour which correlate to an English Language Arts standard.
