Celebrate Literacy Week, Florida! January 22-26, 2018

Jefferson K-12 Somerset Elementary Literacy Plan Book Study: The 7 Habits of Happy Kids by Sean Covey

Objective: Students will learn the importance of prioritizing time management and organization. Students will identify their own big rocks and small rocks.  Activity 1: Watch The Little Red Hen, the students will learn how the little red hen put first things first. The students will learn the importance of putting work before play.  Read: Pokey and the Spelling Test p. 35-42, in The 7 Habits of Happy Kids Book Activity 2: Introduce the concept of Big Rocks/Small Rocks (Big Rocks are things that are most important like family, health, church, school, work and Small Rocks are things that are important but not urgent like texting friends, watching TV, spending time on the internet). Students work with a partner to brainstorm Big Rocks and Small Rocks in their life. Students will present their list to the class.  Wednesday, January 24  Activity 3: Watch: Hungry Caterpillar, and talk about how the caterpillar must put first things first to become a beautiful butterfly. Classes will get together with their "Buddy Class" and paint smooth rocks with unique designs. Students will exchange rocks with their Buddy Partner to remind them of the Big Rock Things that are most important in their life.  Thursday,  Pre-K – 5th Grade Parents are invited to read with their child at a "Teddy Bear Tea Party", held in the Media Center, during the student's special area time and hot tea and cookies will be served. Students whose parents cannot attend will have their own Teddy Bear Tea Party in their classroom as they read their favorite book to their Teddy Bear, and enjoy cookies.  Friday,  Guest Readers from the community will be invited to read to each class a pre-		Book Study: The / Habits of Happy Kids by Sean Covey and organization. Students will identify their own big rocks and small rocks.  Activity 1: Watch The Little Red Hen , the students will learn how the little red hen put first things first. The students will learn the importance of putting work before play.  Tuesday, January 23  Read: Pokey and the Spelling Test p. 35-42, in The 7 Habits of Happy Kids Book Activity 2: Introduce the concept of Big Rocks/Small Rocks (Big Rocks are things that are most important like family, health, church, school, work and Small Rocks are things that are important but not urgent like texting friends, watching TV, spending time on the internet). Students work with a partner to brainstorm Big Rocks and Small Rocks in their life. Students will present their list to the class.  Wednesday, January 24  Activity 3: Watch: Hungry Caterpillar, and talk about how the caterpillar must put first things first to become a beautiful butterfly. Classes will get together with their "Buddy Class" and paint smooth rocks with unique designs. Students will exchange rocks with their Buddy Partner to remind them of the Big Rock Things that are most important in their life.  Thursday, January 25  Thursday, January 25  Tea Party", held in the Media Center, during the student's special area time and hot tea and cookies will be served. Students whose parents cannot attend will have their own Teddy Bear Tea Party in their classroom as they read their favorite book to their Teddy Bear, and enjoy cookies.  Friday, January 26  Guest Readers from the community will be invited to read to each class a preordered book for each grade level. All students will be given their own copy of the book to read and enjoy.  Pre-K: Big Al. Andrew Clements Kindergarten: May I Have a Cookie Please? Jennifer Morris First: Biscuit Finds a Friend, Aylssa Capucilli Second: Days With Frog and Toad, Arnold Lobel Third: Carnival at Candelight, Mary Pope Osborne Fourth Grade: Tales of the Fourth Grade Nothing, Judy Blume	Monday,	Habit 3: Put First Things First, The Habit of Integrity and Execution Activity 1: Watch The Little Red Hen, the students will learn how the little red hen put first things first. The students will learn the importance of putting work before play.  Tuesday, January 23  Read: Pokey and the Spelling Test p. 35-42, in The 7 Habits of Happy Kids Book Activity 2: Introduce the concept of Big Rocks/Small Rocks (Big Rocks are things that are most important like family, health, church, school, work and Small Rocks are things that are important but not urgent like texting friends, watching TV, spending time on the internet). Students work with a partner to brainstorm Big Rocks and Small Rocks in their life. Students will present their list to the class.  Wednesday, January 24  Activity 3: Watch: Hungry Caterpillar, and talk about how the caterpillar must put first things first to become a beautiful butterfly. Classes will get together with their "Buddy Class" and paint smooth rocks with unique designs. Students will exchange rocks with their Buddy Partner to remind them of the Big Rock Things that are most important in their life.  Thursday, January 25  Pre-K – 5 th Grade Parents are invited to read with their child at a "Teddy Bear Tea Party", held in the Media Center, during the student's special area time and hot tea and cookies will be served. Students whose parents cannot attend will have their own Teddy Bear Tea Party in their classroom as they read their favorite book to their Teddy Bear, and enjoy cookies.  Friday, January 26  Guest Readers from the community will be invited to read to each class a preordered book for each grade level. All students will be given their own copy of the book to read and enjoy.  Pre-K: Big Al. Andrew Clements Kindergarten: May I Have a Cookie Please?, Jennifer Morris First: Biscuit Finds a Friend, Aylssa Capucilli Second: Days With Frog and Toad, Arnold Lobel Third: Carnival at Candlelight, Mary Pope Osborne Fourth Grade: Tales of the Fourth Grade Nothing, Judy Blume	January 22	Objective: Students will learn the importance of prioritizing time management hen put first things first. The students will learn the importance of putting work before play.  Tuesday, January 23  Read: Pokey and the Spelling Test p. 35-42, in The 7 Habits of Happy Kids Book Activity 2: Introduce the concept of Big Rocks/Small Rocks (Big Rocks are things that are most important like family, health, church, school, work and Small Rocks are things that are important but not urgent like texting friends, watching TV, spending time on the internet). Students work with a partner to brainstorm Big Rocks and Small Rocks in their life. Students will present their list to the class.  Wednesday, January 24  Activity 3: Watch: Hungry Caterpillar, and talk about how the caterpillar must put first things first to become a beautiful butterfly. Classes will get together with their "Buddy Class" and paint smooth rocks with unique designs. Students will exchange rocks with their Buddy Partner to remind them of the Big Rock Things that are most important in their life.  Pre-K – 5 th Grade Parents are invited to read with their child at a "Teddy Bear Tea Party", held in the Media Center, during the student's special area time and hot tea and cookies will be served. Students whose parents cannot attend will have their own Teddy Bear Tea Party in their classroom as they read their favorite book to their Teddy Bear, and enjoy cookies.  Friday, January 26  Guest Readers from the community will be invited to read to each class a preordered book for each grade level. All students will be given their own copy of the book to read and enjoy.  Pre-K: Big Al. Andrew Clements Kindergarten: May I Have a Cookie Please?, Jennifer Morris First: Biscuit Finds a Friend, Aylssa Capucilli Second: Days With Frog and Toad, Arnold Lobel Third: Carnival at Candlelight, Mary Pope Osborne Fourth Grade: Tales of the Fourth Grade Nothing, Judy Blume		and organization. Students will identify their own big rocks and small rocks.
Tuesday, January 23  Read: Pokey and the Spelling Test p. 35-42, in The 7 Habits of Happy Kids Book Activity 2: Introduce the concept of Big Rocks/Small Rocks (Big Rocks are things that are most important like family, health, church, school, work and Small Rocks are things that are important but not urgent like texting friends, watching TV, spending time on the internet). Students work with a partner to brainstorm Big Rocks and Small Rocks in their life. Students will present their list to the class.  Wednesday, January 24  Activity 3: Watch: Hungry Caterpillar, and talk about how the caterpillar must put first things first to become a beautiful butterfly. Classes will get together with their "Buddy Class" and paint smooth rocks with unique designs. Students will exchange rocks with their Buddy Partner to remind them of the Big Rock Things that are most important in their life.  Pre-K - 5 th Grade Parents are invited to read with their child at a "Teddy Bear Tea Party", held in the Media Center, during the student's special area time and hot tea and cookies will be served. Students whose parents cannot attend will have their own Teddy Bear Tea Party in their classroom as they read their favorite book to their Teddy Bear, and enjoy cookies.  Friday, January 26  Guest Readers from the community will be invited to read to each class a preordered book for each grade level. All students will be given their own copy of the book to read and enjoy.  Pre-K: Big Al. Andrew Clements Kindergarten: May I Have a Cookie Please?, Jennifer Morris First: Biscuit Finds a Friend, Aylssa Capucilli Second: Days With Frog and Toad, Arnold Lobel Third: Carnival at Candlelight, Mary Pope Osborne Fourth Grade: Tales of the Fourth Grade Nothing, Judy Blume		Activity 1: Watch The Little Red Hen, the students will learn how the little red
Tuesday, January 23  Read: Pokey and the Spelling Test p. 35-42, in The 7 Habits of Happy Kids Book Activity 2: Introduce the concept of Big Rocks/Small Rocks (Big Rocks are things that are most important like family, health, church, school, work and Small Rocks are things that are important but not urgent like texting friends, watching TV, spending time on the internet). Students work with a partner to brainstorm Big Rocks and Small Rocks in their life. Students will present their list to the class.  Wednesday, January 24  Activity 3: Watch: Hungry Caterpillar, and talk about how the caterpillar must put first things first to become a beautiful butterfly. Classes will get together with their "Buddy Class" and paint smooth rocks with unique designs. Students will exchange rocks with their Buddy Partner to remind them of the Big Rock Things that are most important in their life.  Thursday, January 25  Pre-K – 5 th Grade Parents are invited to read with their child at a "Teddy Bear Tea Party", held in the Media Center, during the student's special area time and hot tea and cookies will be served. Students whose parents cannot attend will have their own Teddy Bear Tea Party in their classroom as they read their favorite book to their Teddy Bear, and enjoy cookies.  Friday, January 26  Guest Readers from the community will be invited to read to each class a preordered book for each grade level. All students will be given their own copy of the book to read and enjoy.  Pre-K: Big Al. Andrew Clements Kindergarten: May I Have a Cookie Please?, Jennifer Morris First: Biscuit Finds a Friend, Aylssa Capucilli Second: Days With Frog and Toad, Arnold Lobel Third: Carnival at Candlelight, Mary Pope Osborne Fourth Grade: Tales of the Fourth Grade Nothing, Judy Blume		hen put first things first. The students will learn the importance of putting work
Activity 2: Introduce the concept of Big Rocks/Small Rocks (Big Rocks are things that are most important like family, health, church, school, work and Small Rocks are things that are important but not urgent like texting friends, watching TV, spending time on the internet). Students work with a partner to brainstorm Big Rocks and Small Rocks in their life. Students will present their list to the class.  Wednesday, January 24  Activity 3: Watch: Hungry Caterpillar, and talk about how the caterpillar must put first things first to become a beautiful butterfly. Classes will get together with their "Buddy Class" and paint smooth rocks with unique designs. Students will exchange rocks with their Buddy Partner to remind them of the Big Rock Things that are most important in their life.  Thursday, January 25  Pre-K – 5 th Grade Parents are invited to read with their child at a "Teddy Bear Tea Party", held in the Media Center, during the student's special area time and hot tea and cookies will be served. Students whose parents cannot attend will have their own Teddy Bear Tea Party in their classroom as they read their favorite book to their Teddy Bear, and enjoy cookies.  Friday, January 26  Guest Readers from the community will be invited to read to each class a preordered book for each grade level. All students will be given their own copy of the book to read and enjoy.  Pre-K: Big Al. Andrew Clements Kindergarten: May I Have a Cookie Please?, Jennifer Morris First: Biscuit Finds a Friend, Aylssa Capucilli Second: Days With Frog and Toad, Arnold Lobel Third: Carnival at Candlelight, Mary Pope Osborne Fourth Grade: Tales of the Fourth Grade Nothing, Judy Blume		before play.
that are most important like family, health, church, school, work and Small Rocks are things that are important but not urgent like texting friends, watching TV, spending time on the internet). Students work with a partner to brainstorm Big Rocks and Small Rocks in their life. Students will present their list to the class.  Wednesday, January 24  Activity 3: Watch: Hungry Caterpillar, and talk about how the caterpillar must put first things first to become a beautiful butterfly. Classes will get together with their "Buddy Class" and paint smooth rocks with unique designs. Students will exchange rocks with their Buddy Partner to remind them of the Big Rock Things that are most important in their life.  Pre-K – 5th Grade Parents are invited to read with their child at a "Teddy Bear Tea Party", held in the Media Center, during the student's special area time and hot tea and cookies will be served. Students whose parents cannot attend will have their own Teddy Bear Tea Party in their classroom as they read their favorite book to their Teddy Bear, and enjoy cookies.  Friday, January 26  Guest Readers from the community will be invited to read to each class a preordered book for each grade level. All students will be given their own copy of the book to read and enjoy.  Pre-K: Big Al. Andrew Clements Kindergarten: May I Have a Cookie Please?, Jennifer Morris First: Biscuit Finds a Friend, Aylssa Capucilli Second: Days With Frog and Toad, Arnold Lobel Third: Carnival at Candlelight, Mary Pope Osborne Fourth Grade: Tales of the Fourth Grade Nothing, Judy Blume	Tuesday,	Read: Pokey and the Spelling Test p. 35-42, in The 7 Habits of Happy Kids Book
Rocks are things that are important but not urgent like texting friends, watching TV, spending time on the internet). Students work with a partner to brainstorm Big Rocks and Small Rocks in their life. Students will present their list to the class.  Wednesday, January 24  Activity 3: Watch: Hungry Caterpillar, and talk about how the caterpillar must put first things first to become a beautiful butterfly. Classes will get together with their "Buddy Class" and paint smooth rocks with unique designs. Students will exchange rocks with their Buddy Partner to remind them of the Big Rock Things that are most important in their life.  Pre-K – 5th Grade Parents are invited to read with their child at a "Teddy Bear Tea Party", held in the Media Center, during the student's special area time and hot tea and cookies will be served. Students whose parents cannot attend will have their own Teddy Bear Tea Party in their classroom as they read their favorite book to their Teddy Bear, and enjoy cookies.  Friday, January 26  Guest Readers from the community will be invited to read to each class a preordered book for each grade level. All students will be given their own copy of the book to read and enjoy.  Pre-K: Big Al. Andrew Clements Kindergarten: May I Have a Cookie Please?, Jennifer Morris First: Biscuit Finds a Friend, Aylssa Capucilli Second: Days With Frog and Toad, Arnold Lobel Third: Carnival at Candlelight, Mary Pope Osborne Fourth Grade: Tales of the Fourth Grade Nothing, Judy Blume	January 23	Activity 2: Introduce the concept of Big Rocks/Small Rocks (Big Rocks are things
Rocks are things that are important but not urgent like texting friends, watching TV, spending time on the internet). Students work with a partner to brainstorm Big Rocks and Small Rocks in their life. Students will present their list to the class.  Wednesday, January 24  Activity 3: Watch: Hungry Caterpillar, and talk about how the caterpillar must put first things first to become a beautiful butterfly. Classes will get together with their "Buddy Class" and paint smooth rocks with unique designs. Students will exchange rocks with their Buddy Partner to remind them of the Big Rock Things that are most important in their life.  Pre-K – 5 th Grade Parents are invited to read with their child at a "Teddy Bear Tea Party", held in the Media Center, during the student's special area time and hot tea and cookies will be served. Students whose parents cannot attend will have their own Teddy Bear Tea Party in their classroom as they read their favorite book to their Teddy Bear, and enjoy cookies.  Friday, January 26  Guest Readers from the community will be invited to read to each class a preordered book for each grade level. All students will be given their own copy of the book to read and enjoy.  Pre-K: Big Al. Andrew Clements Kindergarten: May I Have a Cookie Please?, Jennifer Morris First: Biscuit Finds a Friend, Aylssa Capucilli Second: Days With Frog and Toad, Arnold Lobel Third: Carnival at Candlelight, Mary Pope Osborne Fourth Grade: Tales of the Fourth Grade Nothing, Judy Blume		that are most important like family, health, church, school, work and Small
TV, spending time on the internet). Students work with a partner to brainstorm Big Rocks and Small Rocks in their life. Students will present their list to the class.  Wednesday, January 24  Activity 3: Watch: Hungry Caterpillar, and talk about how the caterpillar must put first things first to become a beautiful butterfly. Classes will get together with their "Buddy Class" and paint smooth rocks with unique designs. Students will exchange rocks with their Buddy Partner to remind them of the Big Rock Things that are most important in their life.  Pre-K – 5 th Grade Parents are invited to read with their child at a "Teddy Bear Tea Party", held in the Media Center, during the student's special area time and hot tea and cookies will be served. Students whose parents cannot attend will have their own Teddy Bear Tea Party in their classroom as they read their favorite book to their Teddy Bear, and enjoy cookies.  Friday, January 26  Guest Readers from the community will be invited to read to each class a preordered book for each grade level. All students will be given their own copy of the book to read and enjoy.  Pre-K: Big Al. Andrew Clements Kindergarten: May I Have a Cookie Please?, Jennifer Morris First: Biscuit Finds a Friend, Aylssa Capucilli Second: Days With Frog and Toad, Arnold Lobel Third: Carnival at Candlelight, Mary Pope Osborne Fourth Grade: Tales of the Fourth Grade Nothing, Judy Blume		Rocks are things that are important but not urgent like texting friends, watching
Activity 3: Watch: Hungry Caterpillar, and talk about how the caterpillar must put first things first to become a beautiful butterfly. Classes will get together with their "Buddy Class" and paint smooth rocks with unique designs. Students will exchange rocks with their Buddy Partner to remind them of the Big Rock Things that are most important in their life.  Thursday,  January 25  Tea Party", held in the Media Center, during the student's special area time and hot tea and cookies will be served. Students whose parents cannot attend will have their own Teddy Bear Tea Party in their classroom as they read their favorite book to their Teddy Bear, and enjoy cookies.  Friday,  Guest Readers from the community will be invited to read to each class a preordered book for each grade level. All students will be given their own copy of the book to read and enjoy.  Pre-K: Big Al. Andrew Clements  Kindergarten: May I Have a Cookie Please?, Jennifer Morris  First: Biscuit Finds a Friend, Aylssa Capucilli  Second: Days With Frog and Toad, Arnold Lobel  Third: Carnival at Candlelight, Mary Pope Osborne  Fourth Grade: Tales of the Fourth Grade Nothing, Judy Blume		TV, spending time on the internet). Students work with a partner to brainstorm
Activity 3: Watch: Hungry Caterpillar, and talk about how the caterpillar must put first things first to become a beautiful butterfly. Classes will get together with their "Buddy Class" and paint smooth rocks with unique designs. Students will exchange rocks with their Buddy Partner to remind them of the Big Rock Things that are most important in their life.  Thursday,  January 25  Tea Party", held in the Media Center, during the student's special area time and hot tea and cookies will be served. Students whose parents cannot attend will have their own Teddy Bear Tea Party in their classroom as they read their favorite book to their Teddy Bear, and enjoy cookies.  Friday,  Guest Readers from the community will be invited to read to each class a preordered book for each grade level. All students will be given their own copy of the book to read and enjoy.  Pre-K: Big Al. Andrew Clements  Kindergarten: May I Have a Cookie Please?, Jennifer Morris  First: Biscuit Finds a Friend, Aylssa Capucilli  Second: Days With Frog and Toad, Arnold Lobel  Third: Carnival at Candlelight, Mary Pope Osborne  Fourth Grade: Tales of the Fourth Grade Nothing, Judy Blume		Big Rocks and Small Rocks in their life. Students will present their list to the class.
put first things first to become a beautiful butterfly. Classes will get together with their "Buddy Class" and paint smooth rocks with unique designs. Students will exchange rocks with their Buddy Partner to remind them of the Big Rock Things that are most important in their life.  Pre-K – 5 th Grade Parents are invited to read with their child at a "Teddy Bear Tea Party", held in the Media Center, during the student's special area time and hot tea and cookies will be served. Students whose parents cannot attend will have their own Teddy Bear Tea Party in their classroom as they read their favorite book to their Teddy Bear, and enjoy cookies.  Friday,  Guest Readers from the community will be invited to read to each class a preordered book for each grade level. All students will be given their own copy of the book to read and enjoy.  Pre-K: Big Al. Andrew Clements  Kindergarten: May I Have a Cookie Please?, Jennifer Morris  First: Biscuit Finds a Friend, Aylssa Capucilli  Second: Days With Frog and Toad, Arnold Lobel  Third: Carnival at Candlelight, Mary Pope Osborne  Fourth Grade: Tales of the Fourth Grade Nothing, Judy Blume	Wednesday,	Activity 3: Watch: Hungry Caterpillar, and talk about how the caterpillar must will exchange rocks with their Buddy Partner to remind them of the Big Rock Things that are most important in their life.  Pre-K – 5 th Grade Parents are invited to read with their child at a "Teddy Bear Tea Party", held in the Media Center, during the student's special area time and hot tea and cookies will be served. Students whose parents cannot attend will have their own Teddy Bear Tea Party in their classroom as they read their favorite book to their Teddy Bear, and enjoy cookies.  Friday, January 26  Guest Readers from the community will be invited to read to each class a pre- ordered book for each grade level. All students will be given their own copy of the book to read and enjoy. Pre-K: Big Al. Andrew Clements Kindergarten: May I Have a Cookie Please?, Jennifer Morris First: Biscuit Finds a Friend, Aylssa Capucilli Second: Days With Frog and Toad, Arnold Lobel Third: Carnival at Candlelight, Mary Pope Osborne Fourth Grade: Tales of the Fourth Grade Nothing, Judy Blume	January 24
Thursday, January 25  Pre-K – 5 th Grade Parents are invited to read with their child at a "Teddy Bear Tea Party", held in the Media Center, during the student's special area time and hot tea and cookies will be served. Students whose parents cannot attend will have their own Teddy Bear Tea Party in their classroom as they read their favorite book to their Teddy Bear, and enjoy cookies.  Friday, January 26  Guest Readers from the community will be invited to read to each class a preordered book for each grade level. All students will be given their own copy of the book to read and enjoy.  Pre-K: Big Al. Andrew Clements  Kindergarten: May I Have a Cookie Please?, Jennifer Morris First: Biscuit Finds a Friend, Aylssa Capucilli Second: Days With Frog and Toad, Arnold Lobel Third: Carnival at Candlelight, Mary Pope Osborne Fourth Grade: Tales of the Fourth Grade Nothing, Judy Blume		with their "Buddy Class" and paint smooth rocks with unique designs. Students
Thursday, January 25  Pre-K – 5 th Grade Parents are invited to read with their child at a "Teddy Bear Tea Party", held in the Media Center, during the student's special area time and hot tea and cookies will be served. Students whose parents cannot attend will have their own Teddy Bear Tea Party in their classroom as they read their favorite book to their Teddy Bear, and enjoy cookies.  Friday, January 26  Guest Readers from the community will be invited to read to each class a preordered book for each grade level. All students will be given their own copy of the book to read and enjoy.  Pre-K: Big Al. Andrew Clements Kindergarten: May I Have a Cookie Please?, Jennifer Morris First: Biscuit Finds a Friend, Aylssa Capucilli Second: Days With Frog and Toad, Arnold Lobel Third: Carnival at Candlelight, Mary Pope Osborne Fourth Grade: Tales of the Fourth Grade Nothing, Judy Blume		will exchange rocks with their Buddy Partner to remind them of the Big Rock
Tea Party", held in the Media Center, during the student's special area time and hot tea and cookies will be served. Students whose parents cannot attend will have their own Teddy Bear Tea Party in their classroom as they read their favorite book to their Teddy Bear, and enjoy cookies.  Friday,  Guest Readers from the community will be invited to read to each class a preordered book for each grade level. All students will be given their own copy of the book to read and enjoy.  Pre-K: Big Al. Andrew Clements  Kindergarten: May I Have a Cookie Please?, Jennifer Morris  First: Biscuit Finds a Friend, Aylssa Capucilli  Second: Days With Frog and Toad, Arnold Lobel  Third: Carnival at Candlelight, Mary Pope Osborne  Fourth Grade: Tales of the Fourth Grade Nothing, Judy Blume		Things that are most important in their life.
hot tea and cookies will be served. Students whose parents cannot attend will have their own Teddy Bear Tea Party in their classroom as they read their favorite book to their Teddy Bear, and enjoy cookies.  Friday,  Guest Readers from the community will be invited to read to each class a preordered book for each grade level. All students will be given their own copy of the book to read and enjoy.  Pre-K: Big Al. Andrew Clements  Kindergarten: May I Have a Cookie Please?, Jennifer Morris  First: Biscuit Finds a Friend, Aylssa Capucilli  Second: Days With Frog and Toad, Arnold Lobel  Third: Carnival at Candlelight, Mary Pope Osborne  Fourth Grade: Tales of the Fourth Grade Nothing, Judy Blume	Thursday,	Pre-K – 5 th Grade Parents are invited to read with their child at a " Teddy Bear have their own Teddy Bear Tea Party in their classroom as they read their favorite book to their Teddy Bear, and enjoy cookies.  Friday,  Guest Readers from the community will be invited to read to each class a preordered book for each grade level. All students will be given their own copy of the book to read and enjoy.  Pre-K: Big Al. Andrew Clements  Kindergarten: May I Have a Cookie Please?, Jennifer Morris  First: Biscuit Finds a Friend, Aylssa Capucilli  Second: Days With Frog and Toad, Arnold Lobel  Third: Carnival at Candlelight, Mary Pope Osborne  Fourth Grade: Tales of the Fourth Grade Nothing, Judy Blume	January 25	Tea Party", held in the Media Center, during the student's special area time and favorite book to their Teddy Bear, and enjoy cookies.  Friday,  Guest Readers from the community will be invited to read to each class a pre- ordered book for each grade level. All students will be given their own copy of the book to read and enjoy.  Pre-K: Big Al. Andrew Clements  Kindergarten: May I Have a Cookie Please?, Jennifer Morris  First: Biscuit Finds a Friend, Aylssa Capucilli  Second: Days With Frog and Toad, Arnold Lobel  Third: Carnival at Candlelight, Mary Pope Osborne  Fourth Grade: Tales of the Fourth Grade Nothing, Judy Blume		hot tea and cookies will be served. Students whose parents cannot attend will Guest Readers from the community will be invited to read to each class a pre- ordered book for each grade level. All students will be given their own copy of the book to read and enjoy.  Pre-K: Big Al. Andrew Clements Kindergarten: May I Have a Cookie Please?, Jennifer Morris First: Biscuit Finds a Friend, Aylssa Capucilli Second: Days With Frog and Toad, Arnold Lobel Third: Carnival at Candlelight, Mary Pope Osborne Fourth Grade: Tales of the Fourth Grade Nothing, Judy Blume		have their own Teddy Bear Tea Party in their classroom as they read their ordered book for each grade level. All students will be given their own copy of the book to read and enjoy.  Pre-K: Big Al. Andrew Clements  Kindergarten: May I Have a Cookie Please?, Jennifer Morris  First: Biscuit Finds a Friend, Aylssa Capucilli  Second: Days With Frog and Toad, Arnold Lobel  Third: Carnival at Candlelight, Mary Pope Osborne  Fourth Grade: Tales of the Fourth Grade Nothing, Judy Blume		favorite book to their Teddy Bear, and enjoy cookies.
the book to read and enjoy.  Pre-K: Big Al. Andrew Clements  Kindergarten: May I Have a Cookie Please?, Jennifer Morris  First: Biscuit Finds a Friend, Aylssa Capucilli  Second: Days With Frog and Toad, Arnold Lobel  Third: Carnival at Candlelight, Mary Pope Osborne  Fourth Grade: Tales of the Fourth Grade Nothing, Judy Blume	Friday,	Guest Readers from the community will be invited to read to each class a pre-
Pre-K: Big Al . Andrew Clements Kindergarten: May I Have a Cookie Please? , Jennifer Morris First: Biscuit Finds a Friend , Aylssa Capucilli Second: Days With Frog and Toad , Arnold Lobel Third: Carnival at Candlelight , Mary Pope Osborne Fourth Grade: Tales of the Fourth Grade Nothing , Judy Blume	January 26	ordered book for each grade level. All students will be given their own copy of
Kindergarten: May I Have a Cookie Please?, Jennifer Morris  First: Biscuit Finds a Friend, Aylssa Capucilli  Second: Days With Frog and Toad, Arnold Lobel  Third: Carnival at Candlelight, Mary Pope Osborne  Fourth Grade: Tales of the Fourth Grade Nothing, Judy Blume		the book to read and enjoy.
First: Biscuit Finds a Friend, Aylssa Capucilli Second: Days With Frog and Toad, Arnold Lobel Third: Carnival at Candlelight, Mary Pope Osborne Fourth Grade: Tales of the Fourth Grade Nothing, Judy Blume		Pre-K: Big Al. Andrew Clements
Second: Days With Frog and Toad , Arnold Lobel Third: Carnival at Candlelight , Mary Pope Osborne Fourth Grade: Tales of the Fourth Grade Nothing , Judy Blume		Kindergarten: May I Have a Cookie Please?, Jennifer Morris
Third: Carnival at Candlelight , Mary Pope Osborne  Fourth Grade: Tales of the Fourth Grade Nothing , Judy Blume		First: Biscuit Finds a Friend, Aylssa Capucilli
Fourth Grade: Tales of the Fourth Grade Nothing, Judy Blume Third: Carnival at Candlelight, Mary Pope Osborne
Fifth Grade: A Wrinkle in Time, Madeleine L'Engle		Fourth Grade: Tales of the Fourth Grade Nothing, Judy Blume
		Fifth Grade: A Wrinkle in Time, Madeleine L'Engle				