

St. Johns County School District Celebrate Literacy Week, Florida!

January 22 – 26, 2018

DEAR - Find Yourself in a Book! independent reading time; 'cozy up with a good book' pajama day; grade levels select a common reading time • Million Minute Marathon – every minute counts! Teachers will track the number of minutes each student reads to see how close to a million minutes we can get. Caught in a Book/Reading Challenge - tickets will be passed out when staff catches students reading; students will turn in tickets to receive a prize drawing/contest for how many books students can read Morning News Celebrity Reader on the news • Mystery Reader on the news – students will guess who it is Guests on the news will tell a short story about a time when reading made a difference in their lives • What Book Is It? Trivia question o Announce winners of Caught in a Book with photos of readers, bookmark contest winners, and trivia answers o Slide show of kids, teachers, and staff seen reading • Daily presentation of reading tips from teachers Who Wrote That Quote? – quotes from popular books will be read aloud on the morning news; students will be invited to guess which book matches the quote Character Parade – each day of the week a different grade level will present a character parade where students dress up as a book character Figurative Language Parade – Students in grades 3-5 represent various types of figurative language (similes, hyperbole, metaphors, idioms) and parade through the school. • Read Aloud – every teacher reads aloud Miss Alaineus: A Vocabulary Disaster Decorations - Grade-level entranceways decorated with theme of literacy week; door decorating contest; hallway displays - "Put Yourself in a Book" • 'Guess Who' Gallery Walk (AKA 'Mystery Readers') – Ten staff members will be photographed reading their favorite book BUT their face will be hidden; kids will view the gallery and guess who is in each picture • Hello, My Favorite Book Character Is... - students wear a name badge with a favorite book character on it. Author Visits – some authors in person; other authors visit on Skype or Facebook Live • School Play – Peter Pan and the Lost Book of Neverland presented during Literacy Week • Reading Riddles – daily reading riddles will be distributed to classes; prizes will be awarded when the riddles are solved Reading is Everywhere – teachers will bring in pictures of themselves reading outside of school –

maybe to their own kids, to a pet, or for enjoyment on the couch; pictures will be on display

St. Johns County School District Celebrate Literacy Week, Florida!

January 22 – 26, 2018

 Find Yourself indress up each day in different clothes to wear while reading - (i.e., 'Hats Off' – wear special hats; 'T-shirt Tuesday' – wear t-shirts; 'Warn Up Wednesday' – wear gloves and scarves; 'Funky Socks' – wear crazy socks; 'Superherese' – wear superhere attire; 'Reading Can Take You Anywhere' – wear at shirt from a place you have visited; 'Reading is Better with a Friend' – dress like a twin with a friend to read together; 'Hunting for Books' – wear camo to read; 'Score with Books' – wear favorite team jersey) Literacy at Lunch – guests will visit the cafeteria during lunch to read stories to students Book Graffiti Wall - Students will share their favorite books on a Graffiti Wall in the main hallway Spy a Reader /Spy a Writer - Mystery guests will visit classrooms to spy kids reading and writing Award Reading - first semester Accelerated Reader and Raz-Kids Clebrations throughout the day; classes compete to see which group of students can read the most books during the week Disney Day – Who doesn't love Disney? Wear a Disney t-shirt or cap and complete a writing prompt of choice about Disney! Legos in Literature - students match up teachers with their favorite books Resource Classes ART: Book Mark Contest - students match up teachers with their favorite books Resource Classes ART: Book Mark Contest - students will design a book mark during at class to celebrate and promote a favorite book, author or character; the winning designs will be used to make bookmarks for all students. PE: Game activities during PE will use book characters or authors for team names. Example: Sneeches vs. Lorax, Suess vs. Pilkey Writing Stories - K-2 write story starters; 3rd – 5th finish the tales started by K-2 Bulletin Board - Students work together to create a Book Recommendation bulletin board Book Drive – gently used boo
 'Funky Socks' – wear crazy socks; 'Superheroes' – wear superhero attire; 'Reading Can Take You Anywhere' – wear a t-shirt from a place you have visited; 'Reading is Better with a Friend' – dress like a twin with a friend to read together; 'Hunting for Books' – wear camo to read; 'Score with Books' – wear favorite team jersey) Literacy at Lunch – guests will visit the cafeteria during lunch to read stories to students Book Graffiti Wall - Students will share their favorite books on a Graffiti Wall in the main hallway Spy a Reader /Spy a Writer - Mystery guests will visit classrooms to spy kids reading and writing Award Reading - first semester Accelerated Reader and Raz-Kids Celebrations throughout the day; classes compete to see which group of students can read the most books during the week Disney Day – Who doesn't love Disney? Wear a Disney t-shirt or cap and complete a writing prompt of choice about Disney! Legos in Literature - students create a Lego display that depicts a scene or character from a favorite book Teacher Favorites Contest – students match up teachers with their favorite books Resource Classes ART: Book Mark Contest - students will design a book mark during art class to celebrate and promote a favorite book, author or character; the winning designs will be used to make bookmarks for all students. PE: Game activities during PE will use book characters or authors for team names. Example: Sneeches vs. Lorax, Suess vs. Pilkey Writing Stories - K-2 write story starters; 3rd – 5th finish the tales started by K-2 Bulletin Board - Students work together to create a Book Recommendation bulletin board Book Crive - gently used book drive; students invited to bring in books to donate Literacy Essay - 3rd, 4th, and 5th grade students are invited to participate in an essay contest writing an essay titled,		• Anywhere' - wear a t-shirt from a place you have visited; 'Reading is Better with a Friend' - dress like a twin with a friend to read together; 'Hunting for Books' - wear camo to read; 'Score with Books' - wear favorite tam jersey) Literacy at Lunch - guests will visit the cafeteria during lunch to read stories to students Book Graffiti Wall - Students will share their favorite books on a Graffiti Wall in the main hallway Spv a Reader / Spy a Writer - Mystery guests will visit classrooms to spy kids reading and writing Award Reading - first semester Accelerated Reader and Raz-Kids Celebrations throughout the day; classes compete to see which group of students can read the most books during the week Disney Day - Who doesn't love Disney? Wear a Disney t-shirt or cap and complete a writing prompt of choice about Disney! Legos in Literature - students create a Lego display that depicts a scene or character from a favorite book Teacher Favorites Contest - students match up teachers with their favorite books Resource Classes ART: Book Mark Contest - students will design a book mark during art class to celebrate and promote a favorite book, author or character; stre winning designs will be used to make bookmarks for all students. PE: Game activities during PE will use book characters or authors for team names. Example: Sneeches vs. Lorax, Suess vs. Pilkey Writing Stories - K-2 write story starters; 3rd – 5th finish the tales started by K-2 Bulletin Board - Students work together to create a Book Recommendation bulletin board Book Drive - gently used book drive; students invited to bring in books to donate Literacy Fasay - 3rd, 4th, and 5th grade students are invited to participate in an essay contest writing an essay titled, "What Reading Means to Me?" What Else Can You Read? - students on Me?" What E a twin with a friend to read together; 'Hunting for Books' – wear camo to read; 'Score with Books' – wear favorite team jersey) Literacy at Lunch – guests will visit the cafeteria during lunch to read stories to students Book Graffiti Wall - Students will share their favorite books on a Graffiti Wall in the main hallway Spy a Reader /Spy a Writer - Mystery guests will visit classrooms to spy kids reading and writing Award Reading - first semester Accelerated Reader and Raz-Kids Celebrations throughout the day; classes compete to see which group of students can read the most books during the week Disney Day – Who doesn't love Disney? Wear a Disney t-shirt or cap and complete a writing prompt of choice about Disney! Legos in Literature - students create a Lego display that depicts a scene or character from a favorite book Teacher Favorites Contest - students match up teachers with their favorite books Resource Classes ART: Book Mark Contest - students will design a book mark during art class to celebrate and promote a favorite book, author or character; the winning designs will be used to make bookmarks for all students. PE: Game activities during PE will use book characters or authors for team names. Example: Sneeches vs. Lorax, Suess vs. Pilkey Wirting Stories - K-2 write story starters; 3rd - 5th finish the tales started by K-2 Bulletin Board - Students work together to create a Book Recommendation bulletin board Book-Drive - gently used book drive; students invited to principate in an essay contest writing an essay titled, "What Reading Means to Me?" What Else Can You Read? - students enjoy reading magazines in the library Guess the Mystery Reader, - game students play when visiting the media center Book Drive - gently used book drive; students play when visiting the media resource classe wear favorite team jersey) Literacy at Lunch – guests will visit the cafeteria during lunch to read stories to students Book Grafftit Wall - Students will share their favorite books on a Grafftit Wall in the main hallway Spy a Reader /Spy a Writer - Mystery guests will visit classrooms to spy kids reading and writing Award Reading - first semester Accelerated Reader and Raz-Kids Celebrations throughout the day; classes compete to see which group of students can read the most books during the week Disney Day – Who doesn't love Disney? Wear a Disney t-shirt or cap and complete a writing prompt of choice about Disney! Legos in Literature - students create a Lego display that depicts a scene or character from a favorite book Resource Classes ART: Book Mark Contest - students match up teachers with their favorite books Resource Classes ART: Book Mark Contest - students will design a book mark during art class to celebrate and promote a favorite book, author or character; the winning designs will be used to make bookmarks for all students. PE: Game activities during PE will use book characters or authors for team names. Example: Sneeches vs. Lorax, Suess vs. Pilkey Writing Stories - K-2 write story starters; 3rd - 5th finish the tales started by K-2 Bulletin Board - Students work together to create a Book Recommendation bulletin board Book-related Tasks - book clipart contest, book projects, book posters contest, design a bookmark Legos To Literacy — when students visit the Media Center during Literacy Week they will engage with books and Legos Book Drive - gently used book drive; students are invited to bring in books to donate Literacy Essay — 3rd, 4th, and 5th grade students are invited to participate in an essay contest writing an essay titled, "What Reading Means to Me?"<!--</th--><th></th><th></th>
 Final R contrast of students will design a book mark during art class to deterbate and promote a favorite book, author or character; the winning designs will be used to make bookmarks for all students. PE: Game activities during PE will use book characters or authors for team names. Example: Sneeches vs. Lorax, Suess vs. Pilkey Writing Stories - K-2 write story starters; 3rd – 5th finish the tales started by K-2 Bulletin Board - Students work together to create a Book Recommendation bulletin board Book-related Tasks - book clipart contest, book projects, book posters contest, design a bookmark Legos for Literacy – when students visit the Media Center during Literacy Week they will engage with books and Legos Book Drive – gently used book drive; students invited to bring in books to donate Literacy Essay – 3rd, 4th, and 5th grade students are invited to participate in an essay contest writing an essay titled, "What Reading Means to Me?" What Else Can You Read? – students enjoy reading magazines in the library Guess the Mystery Reader – game students play when visiting the media center Book Buddies – read to a stuffed animal during Media class Sentence Strip Hats - students in K-2 will create sentence strip hats during media resource classes to depict a favorite book character. Literacy Trivia – students in grades 3-5 will participate in literacy-related trivia exercises during time in 	Ľ.
 Final R contrast of students will design a book mark during art class to deterbate and promote a favorite book, author or character; the winning designs will be used to make bookmarks for all students. PE: Game activities during PE will use book characters or authors for team names. Example: Sneeches vs. Lorax, Suess vs. Pilkey Writing Stories - K-2 write story starters; 3rd – 5th finish the tales started by K-2 Bulletin Board - Students work together to create a Book Recommendation bulletin board Book-related Tasks - book clipart contest, book projects, book posters contest, design a bookmark Legos for Literacy – when students visit the Media Center during Literacy Week they will engage with books and Legos Book Drive – gently used book drive; students invited to bring in books to donate Literacy Essay – 3rd, 4th, and 5th grade students are invited to participate in an essay contest writing an essay titled, "What Reading Means to Me?" What Else Can You Read? – students enjoy reading magazines in the library Guess the Mystery Reader – game students play when visiting the media center Book Buddies – read to a stuffed animal during Media class Sentence Strip Hats - students in K-2 will create sentence strip hats during media resource classes to depict a favorite book character. Literacy Trivia – students in grades 3-5 will participate in literacy-related trivia exercises during time in 	ool-wide Activities con
 Final R contrast of students will design a book mark during art class to deterbate and promote a favorite book, author or character; the winning designs will be used to make bookmarks for all students. PE: Game activities during PE will use book characters or authors for team names. Example: Sneeches vs. Lorax, Suess vs. Pilkey Writing Stories - K-2 write story starters; 3rd – 5th finish the tales started by K-2 Bulletin Board - Students work together to create a Book Recommendation bulletin board Book-related Tasks - book clipart contest, book projects, book posters contest, design a bookmark Legos for Literacy – when students visit the Media Center during Literacy Week they will engage with books and Legos Book Drive – gently used book drive; students invited to bring in books to donate Literacy Essay – 3rd, 4th, and 5th grade students are invited to participate in an essay contest writing an essay titled, "What Reading Means to Me?" What Else Can You Read? – students enjoy reading magazines in the library Guess the Mystery Reader – game students play when visiting the media center Book Buddies – read to a stuffed animal during Media class Sentence Strip Hats - students in K-2 will create sentence strip hats during media resource classes to depict a favorite book character. Literacy Trivia – students in grades 3-5 will participate in literacy-related trivia exercises during time in 		•
 Final R contrast of students will design a book mark during art class to deterbate and promote a favorite book, author or character; the winning designs will be used to make bookmarks for all students. PE: Game activities during PE will use book characters or authors for team names. Example: Sneeches vs. Lorax, Suess vs. Pilkey Writing Stories - K-2 write story starters; 3rd – 5th finish the tales started by K-2 Bulletin Board - Students work together to create a Book Recommendation bulletin board Book-related Tasks - book clipart contest, book projects, book posters contest, design a bookmark Legos for Literacy – when students visit the Media Center during Literacy Week they will engage with books and Legos Book Drive – gently used book drive; students invited to bring in books to donate Literacy Essay – 3rd, 4th, and 5th grade students are invited to participate in an essay contest writing an essay titled, "What Reading Means to Me?" What Else Can You Read? – students enjoy reading magazines in the library Guess the Mystery Reader – game students play when visiting the media center Book Buddies – read to a stuffed animal during Media class Sentence Strip Hats - students in K-2 will create sentence strip hats during media resource classes to depict a favorite book character. Literacy Trivia – students in grades 3-5 will participate in literacy-related trivia exercises during time in 		•
 Final R contrast of students will design a book mark during art class to deterbate and promote a favorite book, author or character; the winning designs will be used to make bookmarks for all students. PE: Game activities during PE will use book characters or authors for team names. Example: Sneeches vs. Lorax, Suess vs. Pilkey Writing Stories - K-2 write story starters; 3rd – 5th finish the tales started by K-2 Bulletin Board - Students work together to create a Book Recommendation bulletin board Book-related Tasks - book clipart contest, book projects, book posters contest, design a bookmark Legos for Literacy – when students visit the Media Center during Literacy Week they will engage with books and Legos Book Drive – gently used book drive; students invited to bring in books to donate Literacy Essay – 3rd, 4th, and 5th grade students are invited to participate in an essay contest writing an essay titled, "What Reading Means to Me?" What Else Can You Read? – students enjoy reading magazines in the library Guess the Mystery Reader – game students play when visiting the media center Book Buddies – read to a stuffed animal during Media class Sentence Strip Hats - students in K-2 will create sentence strip hats during media resource classes to depict a favorite book character. Literacy Trivia – students in grades 3-5 will participate in literacy-related trivia exercises during time in 		•
 Final R contrast of students will design a book mark during art class to deterbate and promote a favorite book, author or character; the winning designs will be used to make bookmarks for all students. PE: Game activities during PE will use book characters or authors for team names. Example: Sneeches vs. Lorax, Suess vs. Pilkey Writing Stories - K-2 write story starters; 3rd – 5th finish the tales started by K-2 Bulletin Board - Students work together to create a Book Recommendation bulletin board Book-related Tasks - book clipart contest, book projects, book posters contest, design a bookmark Legos for Literacy – when students visit the Media Center during Literacy Week they will engage with books and Legos Book Drive – gently used book drive; students invited to bring in books to donate Literacy Essay – 3rd, 4th, and 5th grade students are invited to participate in an essay contest writing an essay titled, "What Reading Means to Me?" What Else Can You Read? – students enjoy reading magazines in the library Guess the Mystery Reader – game students play when visiting the media center Book Buddies – read to a stuffed animal during Media class Sentence Strip Hats - students in K-2 will create sentence strip hats during media resource classes to depict a favorite book character. Literacy Trivia – students in grades 3-5 will participate in literacy-related trivia exercises during time in 		•
 Final R contrast of students will design a book mark during art class to deterbate and promote a favorite book, author or character; the winning designs will be used to make bookmarks for all students. PE: Game activities during PE will use book characters or authors for team names. Example: Sneeches vs. Lorax, Suess vs. Pilkey Writing Stories - K-2 write story starters; 3rd – 5th finish the tales started by K-2 Bulletin Board - Students work together to create a Book Recommendation bulletin board Book-related Tasks - book clipart contest, book projects, book posters contest, design a bookmark Legos for Literacy – when students visit the Media Center during Literacy Week they will engage with books and Legos Book Drive – gently used book drive; students invited to bring in books to donate Literacy Essay – 3rd, 4th, and 5th grade students are invited to participate in an essay contest writing an essay titled, "What Reading Means to Me?" What Else Can You Read? – students enjoy reading magazines in the library Guess the Mystery Reader – game students play when visiting the media center Book Buddies – read to a stuffed animal during Media class Sentence Strip Hats - students in K-2 will create sentence strip hats during media resource classes to depict a favorite book character. Literacy Trivia – students in grades 3-5 will participate in literacy-related trivia exercises during time in
 Final R contrast of students will design a book mark during art class to deterbate and promote a favorite book, author or character; the winning designs will be used to make bookmarks for all students. PE: Game activities during PE will use book characters or authors for team names. Example: Sneeches vs. Lorax, Suess vs. Pilkey Writing Stories - K-2 write story starters; 3rd – 5th finish the tales started by K-2 Bulletin Board - Students work together to create a Book Recommendation bulletin board Book-related Tasks - book clipart contest, book projects, book posters contest, design a bookmark Legos for Literacy – when students visit the Media Center during Literacy Week they will engage with books and Legos Book Drive – gently used book drive; students invited to bring in books to donate Literacy Essay – 3rd, 4th, and 5th grade students are invited to participate in an essay contest writing an essay titled, "What Reading Means to Me?" What Else Can You Read? – students enjoy reading magazines in the library Guess the Mystery Reader – game students play when visiting the media center Book Buddies – read to a stuffed animal during Media class Sentence Strip Hats - students in K-2 will create sentence strip hats during media resource classes to depict a favorite book character. Literacy Trivia – students in grades 3-5 will participate in literacy-related trivia exercises during time in
 Final R contrast of students will design a book mark during art class to deterbate and promote a favorite book, author or character; the winning designs will be used to make bookmarks for all students. PE: Game activities during PE will use book characters or authors for team names. Example: Sneeches vs. Lorax, Suess vs. Pilkey Writing Stories - K-2 write story starters; 3rd – 5th finish the tales started by K-2 Bulletin Board - Students work together to create a Book Recommendation bulletin board Book-related Tasks - book clipart contest, book projects, book posters contest, design a bookmark Legos for Literacy – when students visit the Media Center during Literacy Week they will engage with books and Legos Book Drive – gently used book drive; students invited to bring in books to donate Literacy Essay – 3rd, 4th, and 5th grade students are invited to participate in an essay contest writing an essay titled, "What Reading Means to Me?" What Else Can You Read? – students enjoy reading magazines in the library Guess the Mystery Reader – game students play when visiting the media center Book Buddies – read to a stuffed animal during Media class Sentence Strip Hats - students in K-2 will create sentence strip hats during media resource classes to depict a favorite book character. Literacy Trivia – students in grades 3-5 will participate in literacy-related trivia exercises during time in 		•	Legos in Literature - students create a Lego display that depicts a scene or character from a favorite
 Final R contrast of students will design a book mark during art class to deterbate and promote a favorite book, author or character; the winning designs will be used to make bookmarks for all students. PE: Game activities during PE will use book characters or authors for team names. Example: Sneeches vs. Lorax, Suess vs. Pilkey Writing Stories - K-2 write story starters; 3rd – 5th finish the tales started by K-2 Bulletin Board - Students work together to create a Book Recommendation bulletin board Book-related Tasks - book clipart contest, book projects, book posters contest, design a bookmark Legos for Literacy – when students visit the Media Center during Literacy Week they will engage with books and Legos Book Drive – gently used book drive; students invited to bring in books to donate Literacy Essay – 3rd, 4th, and 5th grade students are invited to participate in an essay contest writing an essay titled, "What Reading Means to Me?" What Else Can You Read? – students enjoy reading magazines in the library Guess the Mystery Reader – game students play when visiting the media center Book Buddies – read to a stuffed animal during Media class Sentence Strip Hats - students in K-2 will create sentence strip hats during media resource classes to depict a favorite book character. Literacy Trivia – students in grades 3-5 will participate in literacy-related trivia exercises during time in 			book
 Final R contrast of students will design a book mark during art class to deterbate and promote a favorite book, author or character; the winning designs will be used to make bookmarks for all students. PE: Game activities during PE will use book characters or authors for team names. Example: Sneeches vs. Lorax, Suess vs. Pilkey Writing Stories - K-2 write story starters; 3rd – 5th finish the tales started by K-2 Bulletin Board - Students work together to create a Book Recommendation bulletin board Book-related Tasks - book clipart contest, book projects, book posters contest, design a bookmark Legos for Literacy – when students visit the Media Center during Literacy Week they will engage with books and Legos Book Drive – gently used book drive; students invited to bring in books to donate Literacy Essay – 3rd, 4th, and 5th grade students are invited to participate in an essay contest writing an essay titled, "What Reading Means to Me?" What Else Can You Read? – students enjoy reading magazines in the library Guess the Mystery Reader – game students play when visiting the media center Book Buddies – read to a stuffed animal during Media class Sentence Strip Hats - students in K-2 will create sentence strip hats during media resource classes to depict a favorite book character. Literacy Trivia – students in grades 3-5 will participate in literacy-related trivia exercises during time in 		٠	Teacher Favorites Contest – students match up teachers with their favorite books
 Final R contrast of students will design a book mark during art class to deterbate and promote a favorite book, author or character; the winning designs will be used to make bookmarks for all students. PE: Game activities during PE will use book characters or authors for team names. Example: Sneeches vs. Lorax, Suess vs. Pilkey Writing Stories - K-2 write story starters; 3rd – 5th finish the tales started by K-2 Bulletin Board - Students work together to create a Book Recommendation bulletin board Book-related Tasks - book clipart contest, book projects, book posters contest, design a bookmark Legos for Literacy – when students visit the Media Center during Literacy Week they will engage with books and Legos Book Drive – gently used book drive; students invited to bring in books to donate Literacy Essay – 3rd, 4th, and 5th grade students are invited to participate in an essay contest writing an essay titled, "What Reading Means to Me?" What Else Can You Read? – students enjoy reading magazines in the library Guess the Mystery Reader – game students play when visiting the media center Book Buddies – read to a stuffed animal during Media class Sentence Strip Hats - students in K-2 will create sentence strip hats during media resource classes to depict a favorite book character. Literacy Trivia – students in grades 3-5 will participate in literacy-related trivia exercises during time in 	С Ч	٠	Resource Classes students. PE: Game activities during PE will use book characters or authors for team names. Example: Sneeches vs. Lorax, Suess vs. Pilkey Writing Stories - K-2 write story starters; 3rd – 5th finish the tales started by K-2 Bulletin Board - Students work together to create a Book Recommendation bulletin board Book-related Tasks - book clipart contest, book projects, book posters contest, design a bookmark Legos for Literacy – when students visit the Media Center during Literacy Week they will engage with books and Legos Book Drive – gently used book drive; students invited to bring in books to donate Literacy Essay – 3rd, 4th, and 5th grade students are invited to participate in an essay contest writing an essay titled, "What Reading Means to Me?" What Else Can You Read? – students enjoy reading magazines in the library Guess the Mystery Reader – game students play when visiting the media center Book Buddies – read to a stuffed animal during Media class Sentence Strip Hats - students in K-2 will create sentence strip hats during media resource classes to depict a favorite book character. Literacy Trivia – students in grades 3-5 will participate in literacy-related trivia exercises during time in 	S		ART: Book Mark Contest - students will design a book mark during art class to celebrate and promote PE: Game activities during PE will use book characters or authors for team names. Example: Sneeches vs. Lorax, Suess vs. Pilkey Writing Stories - K-2 write story starters; 3rd - 5th finish the tales started by K-2 Bulletin Board - Students work together to create a Book Recommendation bulletin board Book-related Tasks - book clipart contest, book projects, book posters contest, design a bookmark Legos for Literacy - when students visit the Media Center during Literacy Week they will engage with books and Legos Book Drive - gently used book drive; students invited to bring in books to donate Literacy Essay - 3rd, 4th, and 5th grade students are invited to participate in an essay contest writing an essay titled, "What Reading Means to Me?" What Else Can You Read? - students enjoy reading magazines in the library Guess the Mystery Reader - game students play when visiting the media center Book Buddies - read to a stuffed animal during Media class Sentence Strip Hats - students in K-2 will create sentence strip hats during media resource classes to depict a favorite book character. Literacy Trivia - students in grades 3-5 will participate in literacy-related trivia exercises during time in Sneeches vs. Lorax, Suess vs. Pilkey Writing Stories - K-2 write story starters; 3rd – 5th finish the tales started by K-2 Bulletin Board - Students work together to create a Book Recommendation bulletin board Book-related Tasks - book clipart contest, book projects, book posters contest, design a bookmark Legos for Literacy – when students visit the Media Center during Literacy Week they will engage with books and Legos Book Drive – gently used book drive; students invited to bring in books to donate Literacy Essay – 3rd, 4th, and 5th grade students are invited to participate in an essay contest writing an essay titled, "What Reading Means to Me?" What Else Can You Read? – students enjoy reading magazines in the library Guess the Mystery Reader – game students play when visiting the media center Book Buddies – read to a stuffed animal during Media class Sentence Strip Hats - students in K-2 will create sentence strip hats during media resource classes to depict a favorite book character. Literacy Trivia – students in grades 3-5 will participate in literacy-related trivia exercises during time in Writing Stories - K-2 write story starters; 3rd – 5th finish the tales started by K-2 Bulletin Board - Students work together to create a Book Recommendation bulletin board Book-related Tasks - book clipart contest, book projects, book posters contest, design a bookmark Legos for Literacy – when students visit the Media Center during Literacy Week they will engage with books and Legos Book Drive – gently used book drive; students invited to bring in books to donate Literacy Essay – 3rd, 4th, and 5th grade students are invited to participate in an essay contest writing an essay titled, "What Reading Means to Me?" What Else Can You Read? – students enjoy reading magazines in the library Guess the Mystery Reader – game students play when visiting the media center Book Buddies – read to a stuffed animal during Media class Sentence Strip Hats - students in K-2 will create sentence strip hats during media resource classes to depict a favorite book character. Literacy Trivia – students in grades 3-5 will participate in literacy-related trivia exercises during time in Bulletin Board - Students work together to create a Book Recommendation bulletin board Book-related Tasks - book clipart contest, book projects, book posters contest, design a bookmark Legos for Literacy – when students visit the Media Center during Literacy Week they will engage with books and Legos Book Drive – gently used book drive; students invited to bring in books to donate Literacy Essay – 3rd, 4th, and 5th grade students are invited to participate in an essay contest writing an essay titled, "What Reading Means to Me?" What Else Can You Read? – students enjoy reading magazines in the library Guess the Mystery Reader – game students play when visiting the media center Book Buddies – read to a stuffed animal during Media class Sentence Strip Hats - students in K-2 will create sentence strip hats during media resource classes to depict a favorite book character. Literacy Trivia – students in grades 3-5 will participate in literacy-related trivia exercises during time in 			Sneeches vs. Lorax, Suess vs. Pilkey
 Book-related Tasks - book clipart contest, book projects, book posters contest, design a bookmark Legos for Literacy – when students visit the Media Center during Literacy Week they will engage with books and Legos Book Drive – gently used book drive; students invited to bring in books to donate Literacy Essay – 3rd, 4th, and 5th grade students are invited to participate in an essay contest writing an essay titled, "What Reading Means to Me?" What Else Can You Read? – students enjoy reading magazines in the library Guess the Mystery Reader – game students play when visiting the media center Book Buddies – read to a stuffed animal during Media class Sentence Strip Hats - students in K-2 will create sentence strip hats during media resource classes to depict a favorite book character. Literacy Trivia – students in grades 3-5 will participate in literacy-related trivia exercises during time in 		٠	Writing Stories - K-2 write story starters; 3 rd – 5 th finish the tales started by K-2
 Literacy Essay – 3rd, 4th, and 5th grade students are invited to participate in an essay contest writing an essay titled, "What Reading Means to Me?" What Else Can You Read? – students enjoy reading magazines in the library Guess the Mystery Reader – game students play when visiting the media center Book Buddies – read to a stuffed animal during Media class Sentence Strip Hats - students in K-2 will create sentence strip hats during media resource classes to depict a favorite book character. Literacy Trivia – students in grades 3-5 will participate in literacy-related trivia exercises during time in 		٠	Bulletin Board - Students work together to create a Book Recommendation bulletin board
 Literacy Essay – 3rd, 4th, and 5th grade students are invited to participate in an essay contest writing an essay titled, "What Reading Means to Me?" What Else Can You Read? – students enjoy reading magazines in the library Guess the Mystery Reader – game students play when visiting the media center Book Buddies – read to a stuffed animal during Media class Sentence Strip Hats - students in K-2 will create sentence strip hats during media resource classes to depict a favorite book character. Literacy Trivia – students in grades 3-5 will participate in literacy-related trivia exercises during time in 	es	٠	Book-related Tasks - book clipart contest, book projects, book posters contest, design a bookmark
 Literacy Essay – 3rd, 4th, and 5th grade students are invited to participate in an essay contest writing an essay titled, "What Reading Means to Me?" What Else Can You Read? – students enjoy reading magazines in the library Guess the Mystery Reader – game students play when visiting the media center Book Buddies – read to a stuffed animal during Media class Sentence Strip Hats - students in K-2 will create sentence strip hats during media resource classes to depict a favorite book character. Literacy Trivia – students in grades 3-5 will participate in literacy-related trivia exercises during time in 	'nti	٠
 Literacy Essay – 3rd, 4th, and 5th grade students are invited to participate in an essay contest writing an essay titled, "What Reading Means to Me?" What Else Can You Read? – students enjoy reading magazines in the library Guess the Mystery Reader – game students play when visiting the media center Book Buddies – read to a stuffed animal during Media class Sentence Strip Hats - students in K-2 will create sentence strip hats during media resource classes to depict a favorite book character. Literacy Trivia – students in grades 3-5 will participate in literacy-related trivia exercises during time in 	ti		•
• Literacy Trivia – students in grades 3-5 will participate in literacy-related trivia exercises during time in		٠
• Literacy Trivia – students in grades 3-5 will participate in literacy-related trivia exercises during time in		٠
• Literacy Trivia – students in grades 3-5 will participate in literacy-related trivia exercises during time in
• Literacy Trivia – students in grades 3-5 will participate in literacy-related trivia exercises during time in		•
• Literacy Trivia – students in grades 3-5 will participate in literacy-related trivia exercises during time in		•
• Literacy Trivia – students in grades 3-5 will participate in literacy-related trivia exercises during time in		•
• Literacy Trivia – students in grades 3-5 will participate in literacy-related trivia exercises during time in		•
Media class		•
			Media class

St. Johns County School District Celebrate Literacy Week, Florida!

January 22 – 26, 2018

100

LITERACS WEEK	Junuary 22 20, 2010	LITERACS WEEK FLORIDA!
Classroom Activities	 Poetry Day - Share favorite poem with students; explain how you conyourself in the poem; students bring poem to share too. Reading is Cool Day - Weather permitting, teacher & students read sunglasses on. Unusual Book Day - Teacher & students bring an unusual book to shbook, a small book, a book in a different language, etc.) Find Yourself in a Book/Dress Like a Book Character - Teacher & stutthey are representing and share why they like (or how they connect Guest Readers – classrooms will be visited by guest readers (school-community, local high school students, parents, family members, or Book Buddies – each class buddies up with another class to read tog Books for Friends – kindergarten kids will read to PreK kids and will Class Book – work together to write a class book Flashlight Fun – students use a flashlight during reading with lights of Literacy is Everywhere – wear a shirt with words and take turns reader students; class winners will compete in a school-based competition. Breakfast, Books, and Blankets – students wear pajamas, bring a blaenjoy a breakfast treat with their friends while enjoying reading time. Book Cover - Students will draw the cover and retell their favorite s students' papers in the hall before literacy week) to celebrate and s 	outside for DEAR time with hare with class. (Ex. An old dents show off the character t to) the character. -based, district-based, ther teachers) gether give each child a book out ding them aloud esenters in classroom speech anket and stuffed animal, and le tory (we will hang the hare their love of reading
Family Activities	 Literacy Week Kick-off Night with author talks, book swaps, and oth Literacy BINGO – each family will receive a BINGO card on Monday; literacy-related activity; families are encouraged to engage in the lits sign off to complete the BINGO Bingo for Books – family BINGO night where winning families win be Super Hero Reading Adventure – family event with a super hero pho book donations, bingo, and more Chili Cook-Off and Literacy Night – literacy games and activities inside game outside; bring a non-perishable food item for our partnership Chili Cook-Off Parent Interview about Reading - Students will interview their parent when they were in Kindergarten. Family Literacy Night – this special night will include dinner and pro Barnes. Rooms will be decorated with the theme of "Find Yourself I Warehouse will be selling books in the school library. 	each BINGO square has a seracy-related activities and boks for their home library oto booth, literacy games, de; staff vs. students kickball with another school; PTO hts about their favorite book fessional storyteller, Kaye