(Ongoing project throughout the week) Students can choose an activity from the list below to complete on their favorite book. Activities: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Write a letter/email to the author of your book. Tell them why you enjoyed it.</li> <li>2. Design a book cover for your book. Make sure to include a summary on the inside.</li> <li>3. Summarize the book into a comic strip or story for your classmates to read.</li> <li>4. Write a news article about an important event from the book.</li> <li>5. Write a letter to your friend telling them why they should read the book.</li> <li>6. Make a list of new, interesting, or unusual words from the book you read.</li> <li>7. Explain why you think this book will or will not be read in 100 years from now. Support your opinion by including evidence from the story.</li> </ol> Write about your favorite part, scene, or information from the book.
Tuesday, January 29th	Family Literacy Night. Students will be invited to attend with their parents. The students will be engaged in literacy activities while the parents are in a workshop as teachers share ways for parents to help their children.
Wednesday, January 30th	Choose an extended time today to read by the “fire” and eat cookies. Teachers can choose what time works best in their schedule to have this reading time. Feel free to pair up with another class to do some buddy reading.
Thursday, January 31st	Reading Colors Our World! Color War Day – Every grade level has been assigned to wear a color that day. Let’s show school spirit and see which color is best represented!
Friday, February 1st	Students and teachers will dress up as their favorite character from a book. This can be individualized or the whole class can work together and dress up from the same book. Students can carry their books with them on this parade.
