Oakcrest Elementary

Monday, January 28	OCE students will be expressing their “view of books” by wearing sunglasses
Tuesday, January 29	Students will be creating book spines, along with writing a summary about their favorite book. These book titles will be displayed outside of their classrooms, creating a book shelf for spreading the love of literacy with their favorite reads.
Wednesday, January 30	All across the campus, pictures will be snapped of our students reading their favorite books. Pictures will be posted on several bulletin boards, reminding everyone about the enjoyment of reading. “Reading our best life”
Thursday, January 31	Reading is the foundation for an excellent education. Here at OCE, we will continue to build upon that foundation with a literacy rock garden. Students will design and paint their rocks, based on a favorite book. When we receive our “raised beds” in February, from FANS, we will be able to display our rocks for everyone to view, in our beautiful gardens.
Friday, February 1	Not only are students highlighted and pictured reading their favorite books across the campus, they are able to “like” the pic by displaying a “like” button sticker on the picture. This social networking will surely spread the love of reading.
