Monday, January 24th	Dommerich has a rich tradition of oral storytelling. This year, five of the six Youthful Voices state finalists at the Florida Storytelling Festival are from our school. Featured storyteller on our morning news program, sharing the story that earned him or her a spot on the stage at the state festival in Mt. Dora, Florida. We will actively promote participation by students, classrooms, parents and staff. In the Word of the Day program, a 21st century, graphic dictionary entry is recreated for each featured word. In the Dommerich Reader Chef program, students check out a book from our school media center, read the technical text in order to follow the steps of a recipe and send photos of the book, the cooking and the dish. These are inserted into a graphic that is shared on our morning news program and throughout the school on our jumbo monitors. The annual Picture Book Madness program. Multiple copies of a sweet six assortment of brand new, award-winning titles that promote diversity and inclusion will be shared with students, who then use a NCAA-style bracket system to vote for their favorites.
