Educating Homeless Children and Youth

Florida State Board of Education Workshop

Tallahassee, Florida

February 27, 2012
McKinney-Vento Homeless Assistance Act

• Main themes:
  - School stability
  - Support for academic success
  - School access
  - Child-centered, best interest decision making
Education for Homeless Children and Youth

School provides:

• Structure
• Routine/Consistency
• Meals
• Caring adults
• Health Care/Social Services
• Socialization and Friendships
• Skills Needed to Escape Poverty and Realize Goals and Dreams
What are the school district responsibilities under the law?

1. Identify a Homeless Education Liaison
2. Identify and report children and youth eligible for services and provide them with appropriate services
3. Provide School of Origin Services, including transportation
4. Remove any barriers that contribute to exclusion or enrollment delay
5. Post public notice of educational rights
6. Enroll with full and equal opportunity to success in school
#1: Every LEA must designate a liaison for students in homeless situations

- Applies to every school in the United States
- Whether or not the LEA receives Title X funds
#2: Identify and Report: Who are the Homeless?

Lack fixed, regular, and adequate nighttime residence....

1. Living in emergency or transitional shelters, travel trailers, abandoned in hospitals, or awaiting foster care placement

2. Sharing the housing of other persons due to loss of housing, economic hardship or a similar reason; doubled-up

3. Living in cars, parks, campgrounds, public spaces, abandoned buildings, substandard housing, bus or train stations, or similar settings
#2: Identify and Report: Who are the Homeless?, cont.

4. Living in hotels or motels (due to lack of adequate alternative accommodations)

5. Migratory children living in above circumstances

Determining Eligibility

- Case-by-case determination
- Look at the MV definition (specific examples in the definition first, then overall definition)
Homeless Unaccompanied Youth

Definition

• Youth who:
  - meets the definition of homeless and
  - is not in the physical custody of a parent or guardian

“...Through it all, school is probably the only thing that has kept me going.

I know that every day that I walk in those doors, I can stop thinking about my problems for the next six hours and concentrate on what is most important to me.

Without the support of my school system, I would not be as well off as I am today.

School keeps me motivated to move on, and encourages me to find a better life for myself.”
