SUBJECT: FW- Office of Articulation Update

---

Friends and Colleagues,

Please see the following announcement from the Office of the Commissioner. This is an important step in the direction of becoming number one in workforce education by 2030. For our education contacts, please forward this to your Chief Academic Officer, Registrar, and/or other individuals who may have contact with or interest in articulation-related matters.

Best,

Henry

Subject: Office of Articulation Update

Good afternoon Colleagues,

I am writing today to share an update regarding our enhanced strategy in support of the great historic work that Florida has achieved in articulation. The Florida Department of Education has recently aligned our Office of Articulation to work hand-in-hand with the Division of Career and Adult Education, led by Chancellor Henry Mack.

I am proud to share that Elizabeth Moya is serving as Assistant Vice Chancellor for Articulation and Career Education Policy, a position that merges the leadership responsibilities for the Office of Articulation with new and emerging priorities focused on Florida's workforce education initiatives. She brings to the role extensive experience, having served the people of Florida in a myriad of positions focused on strong policy and continuous improvement. I am confident she will be a tremendous resource to you as she drives effective policy and practice related to Florida's articulation and post-secondary credential attainment priorities.

The Office of Articulation's key priority remains focused on providing seamless articulation opportunities for students and meeting the needs of Florida employers by preparing students with the skills they need to contribute positively to our workforce. We aim to make Florida number one in workforce education by 2030, and we look forward to continuing to work alongside each of you as we build upon the exceptional work of the past, while striving to achieve sustained excellence for the future.

As always, Chancellor Mack is available to answer any questions you have, and he can be reached at 850-245-5071 or at henry.mack@fldoe.org.

Sincerely,

Eric Hall, Ed.D.
