

Weekly Memo

Action Items

Interdisciplinary Center for Evaluation and Intervention (ICEI) Webinars

The University of South Florida's ICEI, a Florida Diagnostic and Learning Resources System (FDLRS) Multidisciplinary Center, is happy to present a series of one-hour weekly webinars to help promote positive behavior in children and youth. The first webinar will be on July 14, 2020. Parents and teachers are invited to join us to learn ways to support behavior in the home setting and to prepare students for their transition back to school in the fall. For more information, see the attached document. To register, go to <http://icei.fmhi.usf.edu/>.

- Filename: ICEI Webinar Flyer

Informational Items

BEESS Welcomes New Staff Member

Student Support Services is pleased to welcome Teresa Masterson in the role of school nurse consultant. Teresa has been a registered nurse for 30 years. She earned a master's degree in special education from the University of Florida (UF) and is currently pursuing a doctorate in special education at UF. Teresa's educational interests are where health, special education and the arts intersect. She has enjoyed her years as a school health volunteer, a school clinic nurse, a school nurse, and a school nurse supervisor for Manatee County Schools. Teresa can be reached at Teresa.Masterson@fldoe.org.

Florida Inclusion Network (FIN) Directors

BEESS is pleased to welcome Kelly Claude and JaSheena Ekhatior, as the new Executive Co-Directors of the FIN Administration Project. Mrs. Claude has been an exceptional student education teacher for many years and worked at the school, district and state levels of leadership. Ms. JaSheena Ekhatior has also taught exceptional student education and provided curriculum support at the school and district levels. Both have been leaders in the FIN network and are ready to provide support statewide. You may contact Kelly Claude at kclaude@contactfin.com and JaSheena Ekhatior at jekhatior@contactfin.com.

Live

Interdisciplinary Center for Evaluation and Intervention (ICEI)

Weekly Webinars

Tuesdays at 10 a.m. via Zoom

Click Here for More Details

Hop on the ICEI Bus! The USF Interdisciplinary Center for Evaluation and Intervention, one of the Florida Diagnostic and Learning Resources System's Multidisciplinary Educational Service Centers (FDLRS-MDC), is excited to present a series of weekly webinars to help promote children/youth positive behaviors in the home settings and to prepare for students returning to school in the fall.

July 14th

Surviving the Summer: Understanding your Child's Behavior

July 21st

Proactive Tips for Returning to School and Supporting Students During an Uncertain Time

July 28th

Prevention Strategies to Reduce Challenging Behavior

August 4th

Teach me what to do! How to Reduce Challenging Behavior by Teaching Children Replacement Behaviors

August 11th

Promoting Desired Behavior and Effectively Responding to Challenging Behavior

August 18th

Can you see me now? Using the Good Behavior Game to Motivate Students to Join Online Learning and Increase Engagement

August 25th

Tips for Managing Anxiety and Stress During These Uncertain Times

The ICEI team members will be available to answer questions and discuss ways to individualize the strategies at the end of each webinar.

ICEI
Interdisciplinary Center
for Evaluation and Intervention

