SUMMARY
Requires each public school in Florida to implement a mobile panic alert system capable of connecting diverse emergency services technologies to ensure real-time coordination between multiple first responders.

HIGHLIGHTS
- The act is known as “Alyssa’s Law.”
- Beginning with the 2021-22 school year, each public school must implement a mobile panic alert system, known as “Alyssa’s Alert,” to: (1) connect with diverse emergency services technologies to ensure real-time coordination between multiple responders; and (2) integrate with local public safety answering point infrastructure to transmit 911 calls and mobile device activations.
- School districts may implement additional strategies or systems to ensure real-time coordination between multiple first responders in a school security emergency.
- In consultation with the Marjory Stoneman Douglas High School Public Safety Commission and the Florida Department of Law Enforcement, the Florida Department of Education is required to develop a competitive solicitation for the statewide mobile panic alert system that may be used by the school districts.
