

Houghton Mifflin PreK Implementation Outline

Introduction

Houghton Mifflin PreK is grounded in research about best practices and classroom instruction. The program provides teachers with instructional materials that offer easy planning, options, and suggestions for every stage of instruction. Even with all of this built-in support, Houghton Mifflin Harcourt recognizes that training is necessary to build a foundational understanding of the program and its instructional components. As a major publisher having vast experiences implementing K-12 programs, Houghton Mifflin Harcourt's commitment to implementation is grounded in the following beliefs:

- Administrators as instructional leaders are critical to successful implementation.
- Effective implementation requires careful planning in partnership with the school district.
- Initial implementation training provides equity in understanding of the program.
- District "Leaders Training Program" builds internal capacity and provides sustainable on-going support.

Proposed Plan

A brief explanation of the complimentary training that comes with the purchase of Houghton Mifflin PreK is described below. Final objectives, timelines, and organizational structure of the trainings should be confirmed during the proposed planning meeting based upon the level of training entitlement.

Planning Meeting

Participants: District Personnel

Facilitator: Houghton Mifflin Harcourt Representative

Purpose: Upon adoption, an initial meeting will take place with the district curriculum leaders and the Houghton Mifflin Harcourt representative(s). The purpose of this meeting will be to create a comprehensive implementation plan that:

- Aligns product implementation training with district initiatives
- Identifies the scope of services to be provided
- Establishes a timeline for delivery
- Supports specific needs of the district

Participants: Classroom Teachers and Identified Stakeholders

Facilitator: "Leaders Training Program" Cadre, Houghton Mifflin Harcourt Consultant,

Consultant Facilitated Webinar,

Purpose: The initial program training is designed to provide teachers with an in-depth understanding of Houghton Mifflin PreK and its instructional components. This training will offer an overview of the program content, organization and instructional design.

Outcome: Participants will be able to use their instructional resources to plan, teach, and differentiate instruction effectively in their classrooms.

Delivery option determined at Planning Meeting*

Administrator Training

Follow-up Webinar

Participants: Identified Stakeholders

Facilitator: Online Training

Purpose: Houghton Mifflin Harcourt School Publishers will provide continued implementation support for individuals involved in student learning. These sessions are designed to meet the needs of teachers after they have begun implementing the program to provide on-going support. Trainers will respond to the questions and specific needs of the classroom teachers and building and district administrators.

Outcome: Participants will be able to confidently integrate best practices into their daily Houghton Mifflin PreK instruction to increase student understanding and application.

Training Delivery Options

Leaders Training Program

Consultant Facilitated Web Conference

Consultant facilitated web conferences can be a solution to district issues of time and space. This training occurs in global environment that allows participants to be located anywhere and receive the same training opportunities. Facilitators provide practical principles, tools, tips and techniques that can be put into practice immediately. Participants will participate via the simultaneous use of audio-conferencing and web conferencing technology. This creates a training environment that is engaging, relevant, and provides opportunities for immediate application.

Houghton Mifflin Harcourt Consultant Training

Houghton Mifflin Harcourt consultant training is a face-to-face model of delivery that can be co-facilitated with district personnel to manage a synchronized message regarding district goals and program orientation. Facilitators incorporate participant-oriented learning activities that apply adult learning theory and principles. A training facility is required and participant registration will be dependent on space.

Summary

Houghton Mifflin Harcourt School Publishers is proud of Houghton Mifflin PreK and we are eager to bring such an innovative program to the Florida. The prospect of developing a close partnership in education with the students, parents, and educators in school districts is truly exciting and we pledge to commit our resources to the common goal of success.
