Our Professional Development Plan:

Professional Development Plan for The InvestiGator Club™ Prekindergarten Learning System

Robert-Leslie Publishing provides initial and on-going professional development customized to meet the needs of each individual organization. Our team of highly trained consultants will partner with the site to devise a Professional Development plan to ensure Early Childhood Professionals success in the implementation of The InvestiGator Club® program. Professional development opportunities provide an in-depth training in teaching strategies as well as use of the materials.

Tools available for initial and on-going support include:

Regional Workshops will be provided to allow multiple sites to meet together at a convenient time and location. Each system purchased will receive a voucher for 4 participants to attend 2 day workshops coordinated with major conferences held through-out Florida. Participants will receive systematic and detailed instruction in program foundation, system components, and planning. Participants will learn how to employ assessment tools to determine a child’s progress and guide daily instruction.

Web cast Trainings are available for teachers to access live trainings at their convenience and provides support for teachers who enter the classroom after initial implementations.

DVD and Workbook provide a rich, thorough understanding of the curriculum. This training tool provides participants two full days of instruction in the program foundation, system components, navigation of the Teacher’s Guides, assessment and year-long planning. In addition, video clips allow participants to view master teachers modeling best practices with real students.

Live conference calls allow sites follow-up opportunities to meet with expert consultants to discuss individual needs of specific areas and topics unique to their own situation.

The Teacher Resource Guide provides teachers a comprehensive overview of the program and philosophy, current research and best practice models, assessment, the role of the family, classroom management, professional development, and technological support.

Teachers will find special call-outs that provide additional support for their ELL students, three-year old students, and for special learners. Additional resources include classroom management and safety tips to help the lessons run smoothly, documented research illustrating best practice models, and assessment guidelines to help the teacher take advantage of assessment opportunities.

The InvestiGator Club® Hotline at 1-888-345-7735. A teacher simply has to call the Hotline and immediate voice-to-voice assistance is provided.

Facebook and Twitter supply the opportunity for interaction with users all over the country in their experiences and access to experts and authors.

The InvestiGator Club® Website (www.investigatorclub.com) offers professional development articles for teachers and parents, a toolbox of useful resources such as educational books, professional journals and magazines, and supportive multimedia resources. The website also offers additional investigations and online activities for teachers and families.

Total price: $1910.00; Also available: Spanish support and support for children with special needs.
