Our Professional Development Plan:

112036 OWL: Product Orientation

Session Description

This one-day training will focus on the components of the OWL instructional program, with emphasis on the philosophy, the daily schedule, the classroom routine, assessment, and the parent connection. Participants will explore and learn the daily schedule of activities, including Opening Centers, Morning Meeting, Center Time, Story Time, Songs/Word Play and Letters and Conversations. Participants will practice using a variety of assessments within the program and how they may be used to develop instructional practices. This hands-on, interactive training will prepare staff members of early learning programs to use OWL materials and components.

Length	Target Audience	Capacity
1 day	Preschool Teachers, Assistants, Preschool Administrators, Curriculum Specialists, Early Learning Specialists	30 participants per session

112037 OWL: Leadership for Coaches:

Session Description

This one-day training will provide information and suggestions on how coaches may support their teachers in the successful implementation of the program. The content of the full-day training will enable coaches and administrators to understand developmentally appropriate best practices for early literacy. Coaches will also learn how to engage in professional conversation with staff for open and solid communication. This interactive training will successfully prepare staff members to work in collaboration with teachers and teacher assistants within their district’s preschool program.

Length	Target Audience	Capacity
1 day	Preschool Coaches, Administrators, Curriculum Directors, Training Specialists	30 participants per session

112221 OWL: Early Reading First and the OWL Program

Session Description

This three-day training will provide a thorough orientation to the OWL materials for implementation of Early Reading First. The training includes information on the student materials, teacher materials, scheduling, intentional book reading, language development, assessment information, centers, and much more. They will explore and learn the daily schedule of activities, including Opening Centers, Morning Meeting, Center Time, Story Time, Songs/Word Play, and Letters and Conversations. This hands-on, interactive training will prepare staff members of early-learning programs to use all of the OWL materials and components.

112039 OWL: Coaching and Modeling

Session Description

The coaching/modeling offering may be used to support new teachers, expand instructional knowledge of experienced teachers, or as a professional development opportunity for staff members. This two-day, job-embedded coaching cycle includes one day of model teaching, a teacher debrief session, reflection on the implementation, and planning for the following day. On the second day, the teacher delivers the lesson, and then the consultant facilitates a debrief and reflection session that leads to additional instructional planning. The Educational Consultant supports two teachers across a 2 day session.

Length	Target Audience	Capacity
2 days	Preschool Teachers	2 participants per session

TBD OWL: Webinar Product Orientation

Session Description

This half-day training will focus on the components of the OWL instructional program, with emphasis on the philosophy, the daily schedule, the classroom routine, assessment, and the parent connection. Participants will explore and learn the daily schedule of activities, including Opening Centers, Morning Meeting, Center Time, Story Time, Songs/Word Play and Letters and Conversations. Administered via webinar and available to schools located in rural areas.
