MEMORANDUM

TO: District Superintendents

FROM: Cheri Pierson Yecke, Ph.D.

DATE: August 18, 2006

SUBJECT: RESOURCES FOR PARENT OUTREACH EFFORTS RELATED TO SUPPLEMENTAL EDUCATIONAL SERVICES (SES)

The Department is proud to provide additional resources to assist schools and districts in parent outreach efforts related to supplemental educational services (SES) or free tutoring available for eligible students in Title I schools identified as not making adequate yearly progress for three or more consecutive years. Under separate cover, the Bureau of Public School Options is forwarding a packet of information to your district SES Coordinator that includes camera-ready copies of flyers, a parent newsletter, and advertisements that can be inscribed with the district's name, logo, and contact information. We encourage you and your staff to use these resources in your efforts to reach out and notify parents regarding their right to choose SES for their children and to promote the opportunities afforded to parents under No Child Left Behind.

Thank you for your continued support and commitment to the students and their families in your district.
