The Volusia County School's Security Certification Process requires that each school have an identified crisis team (VCS077) which can respond to identified emergencies. Each member of this team is required to have one back-up at Elementary Schools and two back-ups at Secondary Schools. The annual review and mock drill ensure that individuals are identified and properly execute their assigned duties. On an annual basis individuals are assigned to the District Security Audit team to conduct security audits. These assignments are in addition to their normal job duties and, therefore, minimize administrative layers in the Security Process.
