(I) has accepted a Certificate of Completion, but has returned to school during an additional school year beyond Grade Level 12 for the purpose of completing graduation requirements in order to be awarded a Standard Diploma or;

(II) is a student with a disability opting to remain in school after receiving a special diploma, certificate of completion, special certificate of completion or GED with no intention of working toward a standard diploma or;

(III) is a student with a disability and meets the standard high school diploma requirements and has deferred receipt of the standard high school diploma because (1) student has an IEP that prescribes special education; transition planning, transition services, or related services through age 21; and (2) is enrolled in accelerated college credit instruction pursuant to s 1007.27, industry certification courses that lead to college credit, a collegiate high school program, courses necessary to satisfy the Scholar designation requirements, or a structured work-study, internship, or pre-apprenticeship program. (Section 1003.4282(10)(c)1.2., F.S.)

Code	Definition/Example
D	Deferred receipt of standard diploma for students with disabilities per section 1003.4282(10)(c) F.S. (for students who met all graduation requirements in 2014-15 school year and beyond).
F	Opting to continue to receive FAPE* (use this code for students with disabilities who opted for special diploma and entered 9th grade prior to 2014-15 school year).
S	Seeking a Standard Diploma (may be used for students with disabilities or non-disabled students)
Z	Not Applicable

*FAPE equals a free appropriate public education as defined in the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA). Federal IDEA regulations require that districts must provide a free and appropriate education (FAPE) to all students who have not reached age 22 and who have not earned a regular high school diploma (34 CFR 300.101). This requirement applies even if the student has received a special diploma, a certificate of completion, or a special certificate of completion or a GED. Additionally, districts may choose to continue to offer FAPE through the school year in which students turn 22.
