EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Recent legislation passed by the Florida Legislature and signed by Governor DeSantis has changed provisions relating to issuance of Florida Educator's Certificates.

Senate Bill 7070 (2019-23, Section 17, Laws of Florida) changed the requirements for demonstration of Mastery of General Knowledge for Florida's educators. Consistent with those changes this rule amendment eliminates the requirement for educators working under a Temporary Certificate to demonstrate Mastery of General Knowledge during their first year of employment, eliminates the requirement to demonstrate Mastery of General Knowledge to reapply for certification after a Temporary Certificate has expired, and updates the requirements for extensions to the validity period of Temporary Certificates. The rulemaking will also create a new Restricted Professional Certificate for educators who serve in capacities other than classroom teachers.

Supporting Documentation Included: Proposed Rule 6A-4.004, F.A.C.
