What matters most to you matters most to me

Understanding your life priorities is an important part of how I work with the clients I serve. It's not just about markets and returns, it's about what matters most to you. I welcome the opportunity to show you how we can work together to create a financial strategy designed around you, your goals and your aspirations! I begin every relationship with a conversation, helping identify and prioritize which goals matter most to you. Whether it's transferring wealth to the next generation, customizing your financial approach to help you pursue your passions or providing advice and guidance to help you stay informed, I start by listening to learn more about you and your family.

Bio:

Jordan began his career in the financial services industry in 2010. He is committed to helping clients with their wealth management planning, investment management strategies as well as providing access to private banking solutions from Bank of America. Utilizing a goals-biased approach in working with his affluent clientele, Jordan dedicates significant time to understanding factors that contribute to each client's financial goals and preserve your legacy for the generations to come.

Education:

Jordan served our great country in the United States Air Force prior to graduation with honors from Ashford University with a Bachelor's in Finance. He is recognized by the college of Financial Planning as a Chartered Retirement Planning CounselorSM designee.

Community Involvement:

Jordan serves on the Board of Directors for the Collier County Veterans Council, and is an active member of Grow Church, The Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 7721, Southwest Florida Veterans Alliance, and the Leadership Collier Foundation. Raising his family alongside his beautiful wife Danielle, they often find themselves enjoying time in the great outdoors with their two daughters Moreh and Anabella, along with the family dog Finn. They enjoy boating, fishing, swimming cycling, and golf.
