

Standard Letter of Intent for Commission Review

Pursuant to Section 1002.3301, F.S., the Charter School Review Commission is created within the Florida Department of Education to review and approve applications for charter schools overseen by district school boards. Applicants may choose to submit an application for a charter school in accordance with the above referenced statute as well as with Rule 6A-6.0792, F.A.C., to the Commission for consideration.

Applicants must submit a completed Model Florida Charter School Application (IEPC-M1) in accordance with the instructions provided on www.floridaschoolchoice.org. In addition, applicants must also complete and submit this Letter of Intent (IEPC-LOI) with that application. Applicants must indicate below which meeting of the Commission they elect to have the application considered. A meeting schedule is published at www.floridaschoolchoice.org.
