Most Common Issues Discovered In Onsite Monitoring Visits to Agencies

- Lack of genetic identity as a protected class in anti-discrimination policies and communications
- Lack of broad posting of anti-discrimination policies
- Lack of all required elements of equipment inventory (EDGAR and State regulations)
- Not following FJEP Policies regarding IEP Development and Case Notes
- Supply items not charged to correct object code, e.g., charging staff supplies against client supply object code or vice-versa.
Preparing and Submitting the Application
Preparing the Application

Choose the correct RFA from the website: http://www.fldoe.org/workforce/dwdgrants/default.asp

Read the entire RFA carefully and follow the instructions.

Applications must contain a series of forms and a narrative.

Use the Checklist (last page of the RFA) to assure all required items are included and arranged in the proper order.
Preparing the Narrative Components

Twenty page maximum for addressing Narrative Components – excluding any required forms

Any pages exceeding the twenty page Narrative Components will not be included in the evaluation.

Follow the Narrative Component response format:

• Font - Arial / Size – 12
• Margin size - 1” – both sides and top/bottom margins
• Double spaced
• Single-sided pages
• Complete the narrative using the same sequence presented in the Narrative Components section.
Preparing the Narrative Components

1. Project Abstract or Summary
2. Labor Market Assessment (Not included in Statewide Emergency Assistance)
3. Project Need
4. Project Design and Implementation (a-g) (a-e in Statewide Emergency Assistance)
5. Evaluation

- Proof of eligibility to operate a business in Florida (signed document from Florida Secretary of State)
- Copy of current audit report-if available
Self-Assessment Report Form

Complete self-assessment accurately and completely

• Answer questions as of the time the form is completed
  – For example, if performance benchmarks have not been met in April, when the Application is submitted, but they will be met by the end of the program year, indicate as such, i.e., that they are not currently met but plans are to have them met by the end of the program year.
  – Use the same approach with questions regarding expenditure of funds.

• Provide update on plans to improve Average Earnings such as Local Advisory Council implementation, or other strategy which has been put in place.
