MEMORANDUM

TO: Publishers of Instructional Materials

FROM: Dr. Eric J. Smith, Commissioner

DATE: January 13, 2010

SUBJECT: ANNOUNCEMENT OF THE 2010-2011 INSTRUCTIONAL MATERIALS ADOPTION

The Florida Department of Education has announced its plans for the 2010-2011 instructional materials adoption and is calling for bids in Science, K-12.

Intents to bid must be submitted no later than 11:59 p.m., Eastern Standard Time (EST), February 26, 2010. Bids must be filed in the Instructional Materials Office of the Florida Department of Education no later than 5:00 p.m., Eastern Daylight Time (EDT), May 3, 2010. Resulting contracts shall be for a six-year period effective April 1, 2011.

According to the Policies and Procedures for the Florida Instructional Materials Adoption, the Florida adoption is limited to instructional materials that meet the definition of “major tool” and accompanying “ancillary materials” as follows:

“Major tool” refers to:

- Materials that provide instructional content and student learning activities for each of the Next Generation Sunshine State Standards (NGSSS) benchmarks that are in the course descriptions for reading, language arts, literature, math, science, social studies, physical education, health, world languages, visual arts, and performing arts;
- Materials that provide instructional content and student learning activities for each of the intended outcomes and/or student performance standards of the Career and Technical Education Curriculum Frameworks;
- Materials that provide instructional content and student learning activities for the course objectives as outlined by the appropriate organizations for Advanced Placement, International Baccalaureate, and Advanced International Certificate of Education.
