

Advanced Foundational Literacy:
Decoding & Encoding
*Two Sides of the Same Coin

Decoding and Encoding Note Catcher

"The first thing that happened to reading is _____."
- Mark Seidenberg

"But all children, even those who are predisposed to be good spellers, have much to learn about the history, structure, and representation of their own language that will pay off in many other verbal domains."
- Louisa K. Moats

MULTIDIMENSIONS OF WORDS

Multisyllabic Words
1.
2.
3.

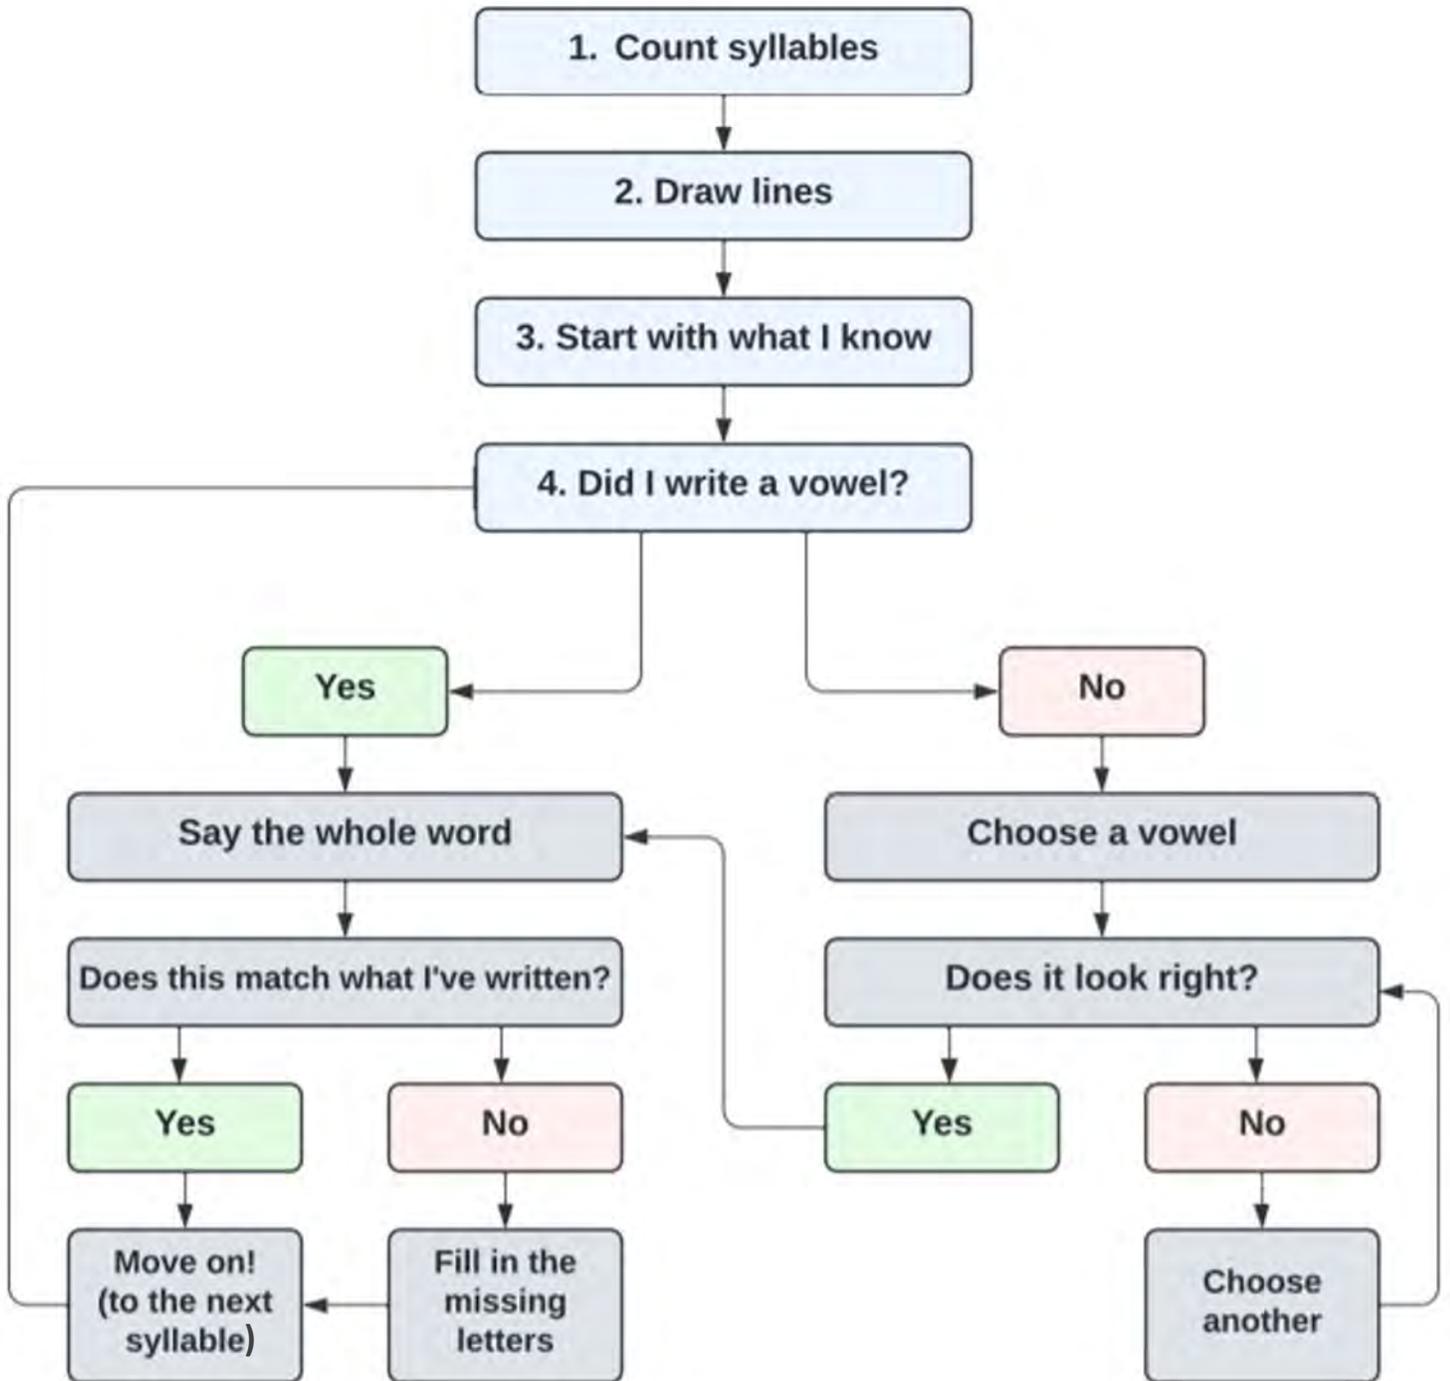

Spelling Test
1. _____

Phonestheme Sort (non-exhaustive list)

Phonestheme	cl	cr	fl	gl	sl
Suggested Meaning	Related to a closing motion (of a single object)	Associated with noises-particularly loud, quick or jarring	Express movement	Associated with vision or light	Denotes pejorative behavior
Word List	claim clam clamp clap clasp clench cling clip close clutch claim	crack cranky crash creak crinkle crispy cringe crumple crunch crush cry	flame flap flee flex flicker fling flip flop flow fluid fly	glamour glance glare glass gleam glimmer glimpse glint glisten glitter gloom gloss glow	sleek sleet slime slosh slouch sludge sleep slither slosh sloth slow slug slum slur
Phonestheme	sn	st	str	sw	wr
Suggested Meaning	Dealing with the nose	Referring to stability	Denotes something long and thin	Related to a long movement	Referring to twisting or distorting
Word List	sneer sneeze sniff snobbish snoop snore snot snout snub snuff snuffle	stadium stage stake stalk stance stand standard stare steel stone stop	straight strait strand strap straw streak stream street strict string strip stripe stroke	swag swat sway swell sweep swerve swig swim swing swipe swirl swoop	wrap wreath wreck wrench wrestle wriggle wring wrinkle wrist write

Encoding Multisyllabic Words

Spelling Formula Flowchart, "Spelling for Life" by Lyn Stone, page 45

Is the spelling error phonologically plausible?

NO

YES

Phonemic Segmentation

Similar Sound Discrimination

Unexpected Grapheme(s)

Spelling Rule/Pattern

Morphological Component

Dear mom and dad,

2-16-22

It was my first time putting

I got a pantbrush and dipped the pants in the bucket then I was putting outside by