 Humanity Tells a Story: What's Your Chapter?

Ongoing Activities 1/25-1/29	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1) Kindness Counts: Cottondale High School Senior Beta raised funds to purchase a book for each brick and mortar student in grades K-2 at Cottondale Elementary School during Celebrate Literacy Week. Books will be distributed this week. Quotes about humanity from well-known individuals will be read by student/admin throughout week on morning announcements. 2) The following activities are planned at Sneads Elementary School for Celebrate Literacy Week. A display will be set up in the library for this year's theme: HUMANITY TELLS A STORY: WHAT'S YOUR CHAPTER? The display will include books on humanity stories and books on character traits of compassion, love, and tolerance...as well as books on different cultures around the world and our globe collection. GRADE SPECIFIC ACTIVITIES: · Pre-K – Coloring READ pages to be displayed in the cafeteria · Kindergarten – Coloring book characters to be displayed in the cafeteria and library · First Grade – Creating a big collage to make the CLW logo above (the world wrapped in arms) for the library entrance · Grades 2, 3, and 4 – Create shoe boxes for Friday's parade. 3) Marianna High: Read texts from Florida's B.E.S.T. Standards Civics Booklist and draw on information and inspiration to write a proposal on how you would like to affect change. 4) Sneads High: "Pop" in the library to check out a book and receive a ticket to be redeemed later for a surprise! 5) Middle school students will read to elementary students at Marianna K-8. 6) At Cottondale Elementary an administrator will read a book excerpt daily and students will participate in a Daily Scavenger Hunt.
