#DHSwolvesread and #VCSCCLW2022

Celebrate Fiction & Non-fiction Day!

- Update and hang your "What is Mr./Ms./Mx...Reading?" sign.
- Start the period by sharing an excerpt from your favorite book in a teacher read-aloud.
- Showcase specific texts by displaying books on the chalk rail.
- Organize a book pass with a selection of texts.
- Take a "field trip" to the Learning Commons to browse the latest selections and check out a book.
- Listen to an audio book, podcast or TEDtalk.
- Give students time to read independently.
- Choose an article for close reading (internet, textbook, magazine) that complements your current content.
- Have students search online for a newspaper's article with a curriculum tie-in.
- Share an excerpt from an interesting non-fiction text or article.

Celebrate Visual Literacy!

- Present an infographic about a relevant curriculum topic to your class as a bell-ringer.
- Have students respond to content by creating a graph or chart of the information.
- Share your favorite work of art and teach students how to "read" a masterpiece.
- Have students turn your word wall into a word cloud using wordle.net or tagxedo.com
- Have students create memes or tweets about your content.
- Write responses using emojis

Celebrate Word Play!

- Use your Word Wall to conduct academic vocabulary review.
- Share a content-related pun, joke, or meme as a bellringer.
- Create Visual Vocabulary (illustrated definitions) for content-specific words
- Use Kahoot or other interactive online games to review key vocabulary
- Write tongue twisters for content-specific terms or concepts
- Discuss content words that have double-meanings

Celebrate Poetry Day!

- Participate in Poem-in-Your-Pocket.
- Distribute or post favorite poems or poems about your content area in your hallway.
- Distribute bookmarks with your favorite immortal lines.
- Add a poem to your email footer
- Post a poem on your blog or social networking page.
- Take an existing text and create 'found poetry' for your content area.
- Share a short content-specific poem as a bell-ringer.
- Have students respond to text by writing a poetry response.

Celebrate Graphic Novel Day!

- Participate in Comic Book Dress Up Day.
- Have students transform the day's content into a panel comic strip.
- Share an editorial cartoon with students as a bell-ringer. There's a comic for almost any topic!
- Feature comic books and graphic novels on your chalk rail for students to read before and after class.

Spruce Creek HS

Door Decorating Contest

Sign-up at the front desk in the media center to decorate a door with a team of up to 5 students. Ask a teacher if you can decorate their door. Then decorate! The theme for the doors is "Launch Into Literacy, Blast Off Into New Worlds!"

Doors will be judged based on creative use of materials, creative interpretation of the theme and connection to the subject area of the classroom. Doors can be decorated starting Tuesday 1/18, but they must be complete by the end of day on Monday, 1/24 to be judged!

Wednesday ✨
January 26th

Bookmarks & Posters

All students are encouraged to create a bookmark or poster (hand drawn or created on a computer) using any materials and turn it in to the media center before the end of the day Friday. One bookmark and one poster will be chosen to win a gift card, and will be scanned, printed, and distributed.

Thursday ✨
January 27th

Poetry Day

Teachers are encouraged to share their favorite poem with students and/or to complete a poetry activity in class on this day.

Classroom Read Aloud

Teachers (and/or students!) will be encouraged to spend 5 minutes of each class all day to read aloud their favorite poem or a section from their favorite book and engage in a brief discussion about how that book impacted them. Teachers are then encouraged to provide students with time each class period to read a book of their choice. It can be 10 minutes up to the whole period. Ask your teachers to read!

Friday ✨
January 28th

Literacy Pajama Party

Our 100 most frequent readers will be invited to come to the media center for a morning of reading, snacks and fun activities! You are encouraged to bring blankets, pillows, pajamas, and a book to read for the celebration. The library will be closed for all other students. Want an invite? Stop by to see Mrs. Murray, Mrs. DeCarlo or Ms. Urbanak in the media center to see what you need to do to get on the list!
