Weekly Plans

(1) Poster Contest:

Week of January 18th. (A flyer will be passed out to students.)

Create a poster at home displaying an “alien” reading a book about rockets and/or space/solar system. Poster must include the following title:

“Launch into Literacy...Blast Off into New Worlds”

Posters are due Monday, January 24th by the end of the day (K-2 to Mrs. McKenzie and 3-5 to Mrs. Harmon). Must have child’s first and last name, Grade level and teacher’s name on back of the poster.

Posters will be displayed in the cafeteria.

(2) Schoolwide Writing Activity:

Share information with your students about the planets in our solar system. Include information about how Pluto was a planet at one time but now is not considered a planet anymore.

Students will:

(K-1) Draw a picture and write a sentence about the planet they like the most. Tell why they feel that way.

(2-5) Write a nonfiction short story explaining how “Pluto” must “feel” about not being considered a planet anymore. How do the other planets feel about the change?

Writings/drawings will be displayed in the hallway next to classrooms.

(3) Ms. Haddock will read the “Readers Oath” each day during morning announcements in honor of Celebrate Literacy Week.

(4) Bingo for Books Family Night:

Thursday, January 27, 2022 5:30-7:00PM VES Cafeteria

Students and families will be invited to attend a “game night” where students will play BINGO to win books. They will be served a free meal of pizza and soft drinks.
