SUBJECT: Executive Order 20-52

Colleagues,

Yesterday, the Governor issued Executive Order 20-276. It extends the state of emergency declared in Executive Order 20-52 for 60 days to January 2, 2021.

As many of you know, the waivers provided for in Section 9 of Department of Education Emergency Order 2020-EO-01, and the waivers provided through Department of Health Emergency Orders 20-003 and 20-010-providing simulation accommodations and other flexibilities associated with our career and technical education programs (specifically our health sciences programs), which are attached to the life of Executive Order 20-52, are now extended. The Department of Health Emergency Orders can be accessed through this link: <https://floridahealthcovid19.gov/news/>.

Please see attached, and do not hesitate to contact us should you have any questions.

Best,

Henry
