SUBJECT: National Apprenticeship Week

Happy National Apprenticeship Week!

The seventh annual National Apprenticeship Week kicked off on Monday. National Apprenticeship Week is a national celebration highlighting the successes associated with registered apprenticeship and preapprenticeship. As many of you know, this “earn and learn” model is a proven means of workforce training, rapidly enabling the economic mobility of its students.

I would like you to consider showing your support and celebrate National Apprenticeship week on your respective social media channels, tagging our friends at CareerSource Florida, the Department of Economic Opportunity, Enterprise Florida and, naturally, the Department of Education, using the hashtag #NAW2021. A full suite of graphics, photos, videos and other social content is available here:

Please help spread the word. Thank you for all you do and a special congratulations to the 2021-2022 Pathways to Career Opportunity Grant recipients!

If you have any questions about social media and marketing content, please contact Sarah Harmon at Sarah.Harmon@fldoe.org. For questions about the Pathways to Career Opportunity Grant, please contact Charles Feehrer at Charles.Feehrer@fldoe.org.

Best,

Henry
