Brooksville, Florida 34601-2397

Dear Superintendent Tellone:

We are pleased to provide you with the Final Report of Focused Monitoring of Exceptional Student Education Programs in Hernando County. This report was developed by integrating multiple sources of information, including: student record reviews; interviews with school and district staff; information from focus groups; and parent, teacher, and student survey data from our visit on September 26-30, 2005. The report includes a system improvement plan outlining the findings of the monitoring team. The final report will be placed on the Bureau of Exceptional Education and Student Services' website and may be viewed at www.firn.edu/doe/commhome/mon-home.htm.

Bureau staff have worked with Liz Weber, ESE Director, and her staff to develop a system improvement plan that includes strategies and activities to address the areas of concern and noncompliance identified in the report. We anticipate that some of the action steps that will be implemented will be long term in duration, and will require time to assess the measure of effectiveness. In addition, as appropriate, plans related to the district's continuous improvement monitoring may also relate to action steps proposed in response to this report. The system improvement plan has been approved and is included as a part of this final report.

Semi-annual updates of outcomes achieved and/or a summary of related activities, as identified in your district's plan, must be submitted for the next two years, unless otherwise noted on the plan. The first scheduled update will be due on May 30, 2006. A verification monitoring visit to your district may take place two years after your original monitoring visit.

Hernando County Final Monitoring Report

Focused Monitoring

Monitoring Process

Authority

The Florida Department of Education, Bureau of Exceptional Education and Student Services, in carrying out its roles of leadership, resource allocation, technical assistance, monitoring, and evaluation is required to oversee the performance of district school boards in the enforcement of all laws and rules (Sections 1001.03(8) and 1008.32, Florida Statutes (F.S.)). In fulfilling this requirement, the Bureau conducts monitoring activities of the exceptional student education (ESE) programs provided by district school boards in accordance with Sections 1001.42 and 1003.57, F.S. Through these monitoring activities, the Bureau examines and evaluates procedures, records, and programs of exceptional student education (ESE); provides information and assistance to school districts; and otherwise assists school districts in operating effectively and efficiently. One purpose of the Individuals with Disabilities Education Improvement Act of 2004 (IDEA 2004) is to assess and ensure the effectiveness of efforts to educate children with disabilities (Section 300.1(d) of Title 34, Code of Federal Regulations (CFR), and districts are required to make a good faith effort to assist children with disabilities to achieve their stated goals and objectives in the least restrictive environment (34 CFR §300.350(a)(2) and §300.556). In accordance with the IDEA 2004, the Department is responsible for ensuring that the requirements of the IDEA are carried out and that each educational program for children with disabilities administered in the state meets the educational requirements of the state (34 CFR §300.600(a)(1) and (2)).

The monitoring system reflects the Department's commitment to provide assistance, service, and accountability to school districts, and is designed to emphasize improved educational outcomes for students while continuing to conduct those activities necessary to ensure compliance with applicable federal laws and regulations and state statutes and rules. In addition, these activities serve to ensure implementation of corrective actions such as those required subsequent to monitoring by the U.S. Department of Education, Office of Special Education Programs, (OSEP) and by the Office for Civil Rights (OCR), as well as other quality assurance activities of the Department.

Focused Monitoring

The purpose of the focused monitoring process is to implement a methodology that targets the Bureau's monitoring intervention on key data indicators identified as significant for educational outcomes for students. Through this process, the Bureau uses data to inform the monitoring process, thereby implementing a strategic approach to intervention and commitment of resources that will improve student outcomes. A detailed description of the Bureau's monitoring processes is provided in Focused Monitoring, Continuous Improvement/Self Assessment Plan Verification, Focused Monitoring Verification: Work Papers and Source Book for Exceptional Student Education Programs (2005). The protocols used by Bureau staff when conducting procedural compliance reviews are available in Compliance Manual: Work Papers and Source Book for Exceptional Student Education Programs (2005). These documents will be made available on the Bureau's website at www.firn.edu/doe/commhome/mon-home.htm.

Background Information

During the week of September 26, 2005 the Florida Department of Education, Bureau of Exceptional Education and Student Services, conducted an on-site review of the exceptional student education (ESE) programs in Hernando County Public Schools. Liz Weber, Exceptional Student Education Director, served as the coordinator and point of contact for the district during the monitoring visit. In its continuing effort to focus the monitoring process on student educational outcomes, the Bureau identified four key data indicators: percentage of students with disabilities participating in regular classes (i.e., spending at least 80% of the school day with their nondisabled peers); dropout rate for students with disabilities; percentage of students with disabilities exiting with a standard diploma; and percentage of students with disabilities participating in statewide assessments. Hernando County was selected for monitoring on the basis of the percentage of students with disabilities exiting with a standard diploma.

Demographics

This section provides information related to demographic and background information specific to the district. Based on the 2005 LEA profile, Hernando County School District has a total school population (PK-12) of 20,586 with 17% of students being identified as students with disabilities, 10% identified as only speech impaired, and 2% identified as gifted. Hernando County is considered a "medium size" district and is comprised of 10 elementary schools, (Pre-K-5, K-2, and 3-5), 4 middle schools 6-8, 4 high schools 9-12, and 1 alternative school. The district also has 1 DJJ center and 1 charter school.

Hernando County is a diverse community, with 42% of students on free or reduced lunch and 2% of students identified as limited English proficient. Of the students with disabilities who exited from the district during the 2003-04 school year, 38% met all requirements for a standard diploma, 3% met the requirements through a waiver of a passing score on the Florida Comprehensive Assessment Test (FCAT), and 1% graduated through the GED exit option (i.e., under-credited students who have passed the FCAT and who pass the GED examination).

District Selection

In making the decision to include Hernando County in this year's focused monitoring visits, the data reviewed was related to students exiting with a standard diploma. Districts were selected to be monitored based on a review of data from the 2003-04 school year that was submitted electronically to the Department of Education (DOE) Information Database for Surveys 2, 3, 5, 9, and from the assessment files. This data is compiled into an annual data profile for each district (LEA Profile). The 2005 LEA profiles for all Florida school districts are available on the web at <http://www.firn.edu/doe/commhome/datapage.htm>. Specifically, Bureau staff reviewed data related to the percentage of students with disabilities exiting with a standard diploma from survey 5. This review indicated that Hernando County’s rate of 38% approached the lowest rate of graduation with a standard diploma for students with disabilities for all districts in the state. Hernando County School District’s current 2005 LEA profile and the 2005 listing of districts rank-ordered on standard diploma rate for students with disabilities, which was used for district selection, are included in this report as appendix A.

Monitoring Activities

The Bureau conducted the on-site focused monitoring visit from September 26-30, 2005. Six Bureau staff members, two peer monitors, and a Bureau consultant conducted site-visits to the following eight schools, including one charter school, and one Department of Juvenile Justice (DJJ) facility:

- Hernando High School
- Nature Coast Technical High School
- Gulf Coast Academy (Charter)
- Deltona Elementary School
- West Hernando Middle School
- Central High School
- F.W. Springstead High School
- Withlacoochee Stop Camp (DJJ)

Peer monitors are exceptional student education personnel from other school districts who are trained to assist with the DOE’s monitoring activities. A listing of Bureau staff and peer monitors who conducted the monitoring activities for this visit is included as appendix B.

The monitoring process includes interviews with administrators, teachers, and other service delivery providers, focus group interviews with students, case studies, classroom observations, record reviews, and surveys of students, parents, and teachers. A summary of the monitoring activities conducted in Hernando County is included in the table below.

Reporting of Information

Findings based on data generated through record reviews; focus group interviews; individual interviews; case studies; classroom visits; parent, teacher, and student surveys; and, the review of district forms are summarized in the reporting table that follows. This report provides conclusions with regard to the key data indicator and specifically addresses related areas that may contribute to or impact the indicator.

In accordance with the Department’s agreement with the U.S. Department of Education, Office of Special Education Programs (OSEP), additional areas addressed during all monitoring visits include the following:

- the provision of counseling as a related service
- the communication needs of students with disabilities not eligible for programs for students who are speech or language impaired
- school to post-school transition

In addition, information related to services provided to ESE students in Department of Juvenile Justice (DJJ) facilities and charter schools, and services for gifted students are reported.

To the extent possible, this report focuses on systemic issues rather than on isolated instances of noncompliance or need for improvement. In accordance with established Bureau monitoring procedures, a finding of a systemic violation will be made if evidence of such a violation is found in 25% or more of the pertinent data sources. The text of the pertinent legal citations noted in the reporting table is provided as appendix D.

During the course of conducting the focused monitoring activities, including daily debriefings with the monitoring team and district staff, it is often the case that suggestions and/or recommendations related to interventions or strategies are proposed, and promising practices are noted. Listings of these recommendations and promising practices, as well as specific discretionary projects and DOE contacts available to provide technical assistance in the development and implementation of a system improvement plan, are included following the reporting table.

In response to the findings included in the reporting table, the district is required to develop a system improvement plan. This plan is developed in consultation with the Bureau, and must include activities and strategies intended to address specific findings, as well as measurable evidence of change. In developing the system improvement plan, every effort should be made to link the system improvement activities resulting from this focused monitoring report to the district's continuous improvement plan. A draft system improvement plan also is included.

System Improvement Plan

In response to these findings, the district is required to develop a system improvement plan for submission to the Bureau. This plan must include activities and strategies intended to address specific findings, as well as measurable evidence of change. In developing the system improvement plan, every effort should be made to link the system improvement activities resulting from this focused monitoring report to the district's continuous improvement plan. The promising practices, recommendations, and technical assistance resources included below should be considered when developing strategies and/or interventions targeting the critical issues identified by the Bureau as most significantly in need of improvement.

Promising Practices, Recommendations and Technical Assistance

Promising Practices

During the visit numerous promising practices were noted by district and school staff and by Bureau and peer monitors. Some of the reported promising practices were school specific, some were grade specific, and others were the results of district-wide initiatives. The District is encouraged to continue to promote an atmosphere where teachers and staff can share these practices. Some of the reported promising practices are listed below.

- Evidence at WHMS that IEP teams determine trial placements and frequent reviews are scheduled to ensure placement in a less restrictive environment as quickly as possible.
- All schools visited implemented inclusive practices (e.g., consultation, support facilitation, co-teaching) to support students with disabilities in the general education classroom; this was reported by staff to be very effective.
- Through case studies and staff interviews, there was evidence of a variety of individualized accommodations being implemented, particularly in the classrooms that utilized the co-teaching model.
- The use of a paraprofessional in the vocational classes at Hernando High School was reported to be an effective support to students with disabilities.
- The district has a procedure in place and staff designated to conduct comprehensive functional behavioral assessments and develop detailed individualized behavior intervention plans based on those results.
- The ESE department provides a wealth of staff development opportunities for ESE and general education teachers.
- Comprehensive transition planning reported by staff and evident in most IEPs.
- Gifted services are available across all school levels.
- Records contained comprehensive conference notes that clearly documented participation and discussion by families and staff regarding identification of the student's needs, goals, and services.

Recommendations

Recommendations have been proposed for the district to consider when developing the system improvement plan and determining strategies that are most likely to effect change. The list is not all-inclusive, and is intended only as a starting point for discussion among the parties responsible for the development of the system improvement plan (SIP).

- Develop and implement procedures to ensure DJJ facilities adhere to state and federal regulations regarding ESE services.
- Develop parent and teacher training modules to address options and decision-making for diploma selection. Include strategies for increasing district, school, and parent expectations for academic achievement for students with disabilities.
- Develop training modules to address the appropriate dissemination of information regarding and use of the FCAT Waiver.
- Establish working relationship with the community college and other adult basic education entities and develop a method for tracking the number of students who graduate with a special diploma who
 - enroll in GED classes
 - take the GED test
 - pass the test
- When asked their opinions regarding the district's relatively low standard diploma rate, staff reported that there is a need to train general education teachers in provision of accommodations and modifications, to provide access to the general curriculum at all grade levels, and to focus on reading instruction so that students with disabilities will be less likely to be removed from the general education setting.

Technical Assistance

A partial listing of technical assistance resources also is provided. This information may be of assistance in the development and/or implementation of the system improvement plan. The following are some of the resources available through the Florida Department of Education. If there are additional topics or areas of concern that are not included, please contact the Bureau for assistance.

Student Support Services Project

Website: <http://sss.usf.edu>

The project purpose is to provide technical assistance, training and resources to Florida school districts and state agencies in matters related to student support (school psychology, social work, nursing, counseling, and school-to-work).

Florida's Positive Behavioral Supports Project

<http://www.fmhi.usf.edu/cfs/dares/flpbs/>

This project is designed to support teachers, administrators, related services personnel, family members, and outside agency personnel in building district-wide capacity to address challenging behavior exhibited by students in regular and special education programs. It provides training and technical assistance for districts, schools, and individual teams in all levels of positive behavior support (individual, classroom and school-wide).

Project CENTRAL

Website: <http://reach.ucf.edu/~CENTRAL/>

This comprehensive, statewide project is designed to identify and disseminate information about resources, training, and research related to current and emerging effective instructional practices. The ultimate goals are to provide information leading to appropriate training, products, and other resources that provide benefits and appropriate outcomes for all students, including students with disabilities.

System Improvement Strategies

The district is required to provide system improvement strategies to address identified findings of noncompliance, which may include an explanation of specific activities the district has committed to implementing, or it may consist of a broader statement describing planned strategies. For each issue, the plan also must define the measurable evidence of whether or not the desired outcome has been achieved. Target dates that extend for more than one year should include benchmarks in order to track interim progress. In addition to findings of noncompliance, the report includes areas of concern that the district is encouraged to address, either through this system improvement plan or through other avenues. Resources, suggestions and/or recommended actions are provided following this plan format.

Findings of Noncompliance	Improvement Strategies/Interventions	Outcome Measures and Timeline

Matrix of Services
Two (2) matrix of services documents require correction due to inaccurate reporting.	The district will identify the five schools with the greatest number of students claimed at the 254 or 255 levels. Using protocols developed by the Bureau, district staff will conduct reviews of two IEPs per school (first and last record from alphabetical list of 254/255 records). For students whose IEPs do not support the services on the matrix or for whom the services are not in evidence, the district will submit an amendment to the Automated Student Information System database for the open window of correction. Four (4) findings of noncompliance required funding adjustments. IEP teams for nineteen (19) students must reconvene to address identified findings.	The IEP teams for the identified students will reconvene to address identified findings. The identified noncompliant elements will be targeted in the district's IEP and EP training. Pre-and post- training surveys will be conducted to determine perceived effectiveness of the training. Using protocols developed by the Bureau, school and/or district staff will conduct semi-annual compliance reviews of a random sample of 15 IEPs and 5 EPs developed by staff who participated in the training session. INTRODUCTION

The LEA profile is intended to provide districts with a tool for use in planning for systemic improvement. The profile contains a series of data indicators that describe measures of educational benefit, educational environment, and prevalence for exceptional students. The data are presented for the district, their enrollment group (districts of comparable size), and the state. Where appropriate and available, comparative data for general education students are included.

Data presented as indicators of educational benefit (Section One)

- Standard diploma rates for students with disabilities receiving standard diplomas through meeting all graduation requirements, GED Exit Option, and FCAT waivers
- Dropout rates
- Post-school outcome data
- Third grade promotion and retention, including good cause promotions

Note: FCAT participation and performance data formerly included in the LEA profile will be published separately in Fall 2005.

Data presented as indicators of educational environment (Section Two)

- Regular class, resource room, and separate class placement, ages 6-21
- Early childhood setting or home, part-time early childhood/part-time early childhood special education setting and early childhood special education setting, ages 3-5
- Discipline rates

Data presented as indicators of prevalence (Section Three)

- Student membership by race/ethnicity
- Gifted membership by free/reduced lunch and limited English proficiency (LEP) status
- Student membership in selected disabilities by race/ethnicity
- Selected disabilities as a percentage of all disabilities and as a percentage of total PK-12 population

LEA PROFILE 2005

Three of the indicators included in the profile, graduation rate, dropout rate, and regular class placement, are also used in the selection of districts for focused monitoring. Indicators describing the prevalence and separate class placement of students identified as educable mentally handicapped (EMH) are included to correspond with provisions of the Bureau's partnership agreement with the Office for Civil Rights.

DATA SOURCES

The data contained in this profile were obtained from data submitted electronically by districts through the Department of Education Information Database in surveys 2, 9, 3, and 5 and through the Florida Education and Training Placement Information Program (FETPIP).

SECTION THREE: PREVALENCE

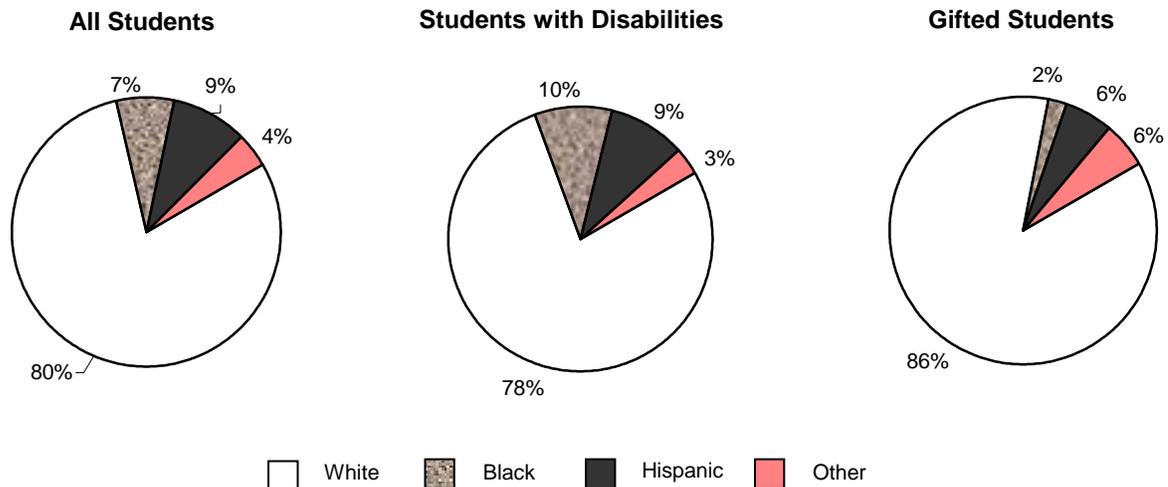

Prevalence refers to the proportion of the PK-12 population identified as exceptional at any given point in time. This section of the profile provides prevalence data by demographic characteristics.

STUDENT MEMBERSHIP BY RACIAL/ETHNIC CATEGORY:

The three columns on the left show the statewide racial/ethnic distribution for all PK-12 students, all students with disabilities, and all gifted students as reported in October 2004 (survey 2). Statewide, there is a larger percentage of black students in the disabled population than in the total PK-12 population (28 percent vs. 24 percent) and a smaller percentage of black students in the gifted population (10 percent vs. 24 percent). Similar data for the district are reported in the three right-hand columns and displayed in the graphs.

Parent Survey Report: Students with Disabilities

Responding to the need to increase the involvement of parents and families of exceptional education students in evaluating the educational services provided to their children, the Florida Department of Education, Bureau Exceptional Education and Student Services, contracted with the University of Miami to develop and administer a parent survey as part of the Bureau's district monitoring activities.

The parent survey was sent to parents of the 3,651 students with disabilities for whom complete addresses were provided by the district. A total of 423 parents (PK, n = 0; K-5, n = 94; 6-8, n = 48; 9-12, n = 59), representing 12% of the sample, returned the survey. Surveys from 67 families were returned as undeliverable, representing 2% of the sample. Parents represented the following students with disabilities: educable mentally handicapped, trainable mentally handicapped, orthopedically impaired, speech impaired, language impaired, deaf or hard of hearing, visually impaired, emotionally handicapped, specific learning disabled, hospital/homebound, autistic, developmentally delayed, and other health impaired.

Student Survey Report: Students with Disabilities

In order to obtain the perspective of students with disabilities who receive services from public school districts, the Florida Department of Education, Bureau of Exceptional Education and Student Services, contracts with the University of Miami to develop and administer a student survey as a component of the Bureau's focused monitoring activities.

In conjunction with the 2005 Hernando County School District monitoring activities, a sufficient number of surveys were provided to allow all students with disabilities, grades 9-12, to respond. Instructions for administration of the survey by classroom teachers, including a written script, were provided for each class or group of students. Since participation in this survey is not appropriate for some students whose disabilities might impair their understanding of the survey, professional judgment is to be used to determine appropriate participation.

Surveys were received from 323 students, representing approximately 27% of the students with disabilities in grades 9-12 in the district. Data are from 4 (44%) of the district's 9 schools with students in grades 9-12.

The following legal provisions apply to the issues referenced in this report:

Related to Access to the General Curriculum

Title 34 Section 300.26(a) (3), Code of Federal Regulations (CFR), Special Education states “Specially designed instruction means adapting, as appropriate to the needs of the eligible child under this part, the content, methodology, or delivery of instruction—(i) To address the unique needs of the child that result from the child’s disability; and (ii) To ensure access of the child to the general curriculum, so that he or she can meet the educational standards within the jurisdiction of the public agency that apply to all children.

34 CFR 300.347(a)(4) Content of IEP states “The IEP for each child with a disability must include... an explanation of the extent, if any, to which the child will not participate with nondisabled children in the regular class...”

34 CFR §300.500 (b) General LRE Requirements states “Each public agency shall ensure- (1) That to the maximum extent appropriate, children with disabilities including children in public or private institutions or other care facilities, are educated with children who are nondisabled; and (2) That special classes, separate schooling or other removal of children with disabilities from the regular educational environment occurs only if the nature or severity of the disability is such that education in regular classes with the use of supplementary aids and services cannot be achieved satisfactorily.”

34 CFR 300.552, Placements states ”In determining the educational placement of a child with a disability, including a preschool child with a disability, each public agency shall ensure that – (a) The placement decision - (1) Is made by a group of persons, including the parents, and other persons knowledgeable about the child, the meaning of the evaluation data, and the placement options; and (2) Is made in conformity with the LRE provisions of this subpart including §§ 300.500 – 300.554: (b) The child’s placement – (1) Is determined at least annually; (2) Is based on the child’s IEP; and (3) Is as close as possible to the child’s home. (c) Unless the IEP of a child with a disability requires some other arrangement, the child is educated in the school that he or she would attend if nondisabled: (d) In selecting the LRE, consideration is given to any potential harmful effect on the child or on the quality of services that he or she needs: and (e) A child with a disability is not removed from education in age-appropriate regular classrooms solely because of needed modifications in the general curriculum.”

34 CFR § 300.553 Nonacademic settings states “In providing or arranging for the provision of nonacademic and extracurricular services and activities, including meals, recess periods, and the services and activities set forth in § 300.306, each public agency shall ensure that each child with a disability participates with nondisabled children in those services and activities to the maximum extent appropriate to the needs of that child.”

Student Record Reviews

Florida Department of Education
Bureau of Exceptional Education and Student Services
2005 Focused Monitoring
Hernando County School District

Student Record Reviews

A total of 31 student records of students with disabilities and ten records of students identified as gifted, randomly selected from the population of ESE students, were reviewed. The records were from 14 schools in the district. Fifteen of the records represented transition IEPs for students aged 14 or older. Targeted or partial reviews of an additional 84 records were conducted on-site in conjunction with student case studies and to collect information related to additional compliance areas designated by the Bureau. In addition to IEP reviews, the Bureau conducted reviews of nine matrix of services documents for students reported at the 254 or 255 funding level through the Florida Education Finance Program (FEFP). Any services claimed on the matrix must be documented on the IEP and must be in evidence in the classroom.

To be determined systemic in nature, an item must be found noncompliant in at least 25% of the records reviewed. In Hernando County, at least five of the IEPs and three of the EPs must have been noncompliant on a given item to be considered a systemic finding. For six of the 31 IEPs more than 50% of the goals were not measurable, and IEP teams must be reconvened to address this finding. The district was notified of the specific students requiring reconvened IEP meetings in a letter dated October 12, 2005.

Systemic findings were made in the following areas:

- Lack of individualized supports to school personnel (29)
- Lack of measurable goals (17)
- Lack of short term objectives or benchmarks containing criteria or time frame (17)
- Lack of special education service or specially designed instruction (12)
- Lack of an explanation of the extent, if any, to which the student will not participate with nondisabled students in the regular class (8)
- Lack of complete information in the present level of performance statement (7)
- Lack of correspondence between the present level of performance and the annual goals and short-term objectives or benchmarks (6)
- Lack of consent of parent for student to receive instructional accommodations not permitted on statewide assessment and understanding of the implications of such accommodations (6)
- Lack of identification of the frequency of special education services/specially designed instruction (5)
- Lack of a statement of how progress toward annual goals will be measured (5)
- Lack of transition identified as a purpose on the meeting notice (5)

Individual or non systemic findings were noted in 20 additional areas.

Of the ten EPs reviewed, there were six systemic findings of noncompliance:

- Lack of documentation of consideration of students strengths and needs beyond the general curriculum (10)
- Lack of statement identifying how progress toward annuals goals will be measured and parents informed of that progress (10)
- Lack of EPs reviewed and revised within specified timelines established in District SP&P and within three years during K-8 grades (5)
- Lack of specially designed instruction (4)
- Lack of appropriate team members present at EP meeting: interpreter of instructional implications and general education teacher (4)
- Lack of documentation of a second attempt to involve parents when no response to first attempt was provided (4)

In addition, individual or non-systemic findings were noted in six additional areas.
