Florida School for the Deaf and the Blind (FSDB) Virtual ECC Summer Interactive Learning Camp

The FSDB is excited to present the inaugural Virtual Expanded Core Curriculum (ECC) Summer Interactive Learning Camp for children in grades 3 through 10 who are deaf or hard of hearing (DHH) or blind or visually impaired (BVI). Weekly lessons are focused on areas of the ECC for students who are DHH or BVI and their families. FSDB and non-FSDB students who have an active individual educational plan (IEP) with DHH or BVI as a primary exceptionality are eligible to register for one or all of these exciting sessions. All registered students will receive materials delivered to their homes for participation via live conferencing and engaging online classroom activities. These three one-week summer sessions, beginning July 13, 2020, are available at no cost for eligible Florida students ages 9-16. Families can register for a single week or all three weeks. Each week's lessons are themed differently and led by certified teachers with experience working with students who are DHH or BVI. Space is limited and registration is required, so please do not wait to sign up. To register, go to <http://events.r20.constantcontact.com/register/event?oeidk=a07eh4o1nf809f88085&llr=qd87qgabb>.

BEESS Recognizes Staff Member in New Position

The Student Support Services Project acknowledges a new Medicaid consultant, Nanci English, who previously served as the EMACS coordinator in BEESS. Nanci will be replacing Anne Glass, who is retiring July 31, 2020. Prior to coming to the Student Support Services Project in January 2020, Nanci worked in the Broward County school district as the Medicaid specialist, with more than a decade of Medicaid school-based services experience. In that role, Nanci was responsible for training school district providers whose services were Medicaid billable, training participants and managing functions related to the administrative claiming program. Nanci also coordinated with state Medicaid agency staff for compliance with all Medicaid and school programs. Since becoming the EMACS coordinator, Nanci has trained school-based services staff and worked with districts and the state Medicaid agency to provide district assistance and resolve issues in the fee-for-service and administrative claiming programs. Nanci has a degree in finance from Florida Atlantic University. Nanci is looking forward to assisting and supporting districts in all matters related to Medicaid. Nanci can be reached at Nanci.English@fldoe.org.

New Multiagency Network for Students with Emotional/Behavioral Disabilities (SEDNET) Administration Program Director

SEDNET announces the appointment of Dr. Timothy King as program director of the SEDNET Administration Project. Dr. King began his education career as a 19-year-old paraprofessional and has continued to serve Florida public school students as an exceptional student education resource teacher, alternative education instructor, IEP facilitator, assistant principal, district behavior coordinator, and most currently, as the Exceptional Student Education director for Flagler County Schools. Dr. King is a seasoned trainer and collaborator, and prides himself in consensus building within an education milieu. The state of Florida and its youth will greatly benefit from Dr. King's professional experience and expertise. Jordan Knab, principal investigator, and Dr. Charlene Grecsek, executive director, are pleased to welcome Dr. King to the team.
