Job Vacancies

Position Available at the Florida Instructional Materials Center for the Visually Impaired (FIMC-VI)
FIMC-VI is currently seeking a braille and accessible assessments specialist (BAAS). FIMC-VI staff assist with coordinating all aspects of braille versions of statewide assessments in collaboration with the FDOE, Bureau of K-12 Student Assessment and Test Development Center. The BAAS will collaborate with the existing BAAS to conduct item reviews, proofread braille versions of statewide assessments, provide timely reports, and meet all deadlines indicated by the Bureau of K-12 Student Assessment. This is a 12-month, eight-hour per day position and requires travel to attend state and national assessment meetings, as well as the ability to provide webinars and trainings for teachers of students with visual impairments as related to braille and assessment. FIMC-VI is currently located in Tampa, but applicants may work remotely if they reside in Florida. Textbook Adoption Accessibility Reminder

As your district makes textbook adoption selections, be sure to consider accessibility for your students with disabilities.

- How can local educational agencies (LEAs) help ensure instructional materials are accessible and provided in a timely manner?
  - Ensure digital content is accessible for all students with disabilities, such as students with physical impairments, learning disabilities and visual impairments, and/or who are deaf or hard of hearing.
  - Include language in your purchasing agreements that directs publishers to provide National Instructional Materials Accessibility Standard (NIMAS) files to the National Instructional Materials Access Center (NIMAC).
  - Adopt materials from the state educational agency (SEA) adoption list, as the SEA has signed a coordination agreement with the NIMAC where they agree to direct publishers to provide NIMAS files to the NIMAC as part of their adoption contracts or purchase agreements.
  - If a NIMAS file is not available for any adopted materials, “the LEA must provide an assurance to the SEA that the LEA will provide instructional materials to blind persons or other persons with print disabilities in a timely manner (34 C.F.R. § 300.210).”
- What are NIMAS and NIMAC?
  - NIMAS stands for National Instructional Materials Accessibility Standard and represents the HTML file standard to be used in the preparation of electronic files suitable and used solely for efficient conversion into accessible formats (i.e., DAISY files, BRFs, EPUBs, Word files, etc.). NIMAS files are provided by the publisher and are restricted for use by eligible students under the IDEA. NIMAS files can also be created for static, digital-only materials.
  - NIMAC stands for the National Instructional Materials Access Center and is the national repository of NIMAS files provided by publishers. The NIMAC was created in IDEA 2004 to help improve the quality and delivery of accessible formats to eligible students with disabilities.
  - In IDEA 2004, SEAs and LEAs were given the option to coordinate with the NIMAC, which means that the SEA has signed a coordination agreement with the NIMAC, or an LEA has a coordination plan on file with its SEA. SEAs and LEAs agree to direct publishers to provide NIMAS files to the NIMAC as part of their adoption contracts or purchase agreements when acquiring student instructional materials.

- The FIMC-VI uses NIMAS files to produce braille and large-print textbooks for Florida’s students with visual impairments. NIMAS files are also used to produce some of the materials available on Bookshare.
- Attend the Obtaining No-Cost Accessible Digital Books for Eligible Florida K-12 Students webinar on February 8, 2024, at 2 p.m. or watch the recording to learn more about which students are eligible to use materials created from NIMAS files.
- Learn more from the National Center on Accessible Educational Materials.

Tip of the Week

Provide Informational Placemat for IEP Team Meetings

Consider offering parents an informative "cheat sheet." It could clarify commonly used acronyms, outline the meeting agenda, include names and titles of school officials, and provide a note-taking section. The placemat may also go a long way toward helping parents meaningfully participate in the IEP process. (Special Ed Connection)
