Other Health Impairment (OHI) and Hospital Homebound (HH) Contacts' Meeting and Florida School Health Association Conference and Training

The Bureau of Exceptional Education and Student Services (BEESS) is pleased to announce the 2023 OHI/HH Contacts' Meeting, which will highlight the criteria and process of determining eligibility for OHI/HH services for Florida students. The meeting will be hosted at the 2023 Florida Health Association Conference and Training at the Rosen Center Hotel in Orlando, specifically during the afternoon of May 10, 2023, and during breakout sessions on May 11, 2023. The 2023 Florida Health Association Conference and Training will be held at the same location on May 10-12, 2023, and will feature an extensive panel of facilitators and keynote speakers along with other sessions focused on impairment and substance exposure and American School Health Association updates and resiliency. We encourage exceptional student education (ESE) directors, district HH contacts, and school ESE coordinators to attend. BEESS will host one person per district to attend the meeting and conference, which includes the conference fee, travel, food and per diem. The deadline to register is April 18, 2023. To register, go to the 2023 OHI/HH Contact Meeting and FSHA Conference Registration web page. If you have questions or require accommodations during the presentation, contact Angela Roland at Angela.Roland@fldoe.org or by telephone at 850-245-0475.
