University of Florida Center for Autism and Related Disabilities (UF CARD) Summer Institute Webinar Series

The UF CARD Summer Institute webinar series will be on July 28 and 29, 2020. The institute will focus on strategies to support literacy (i.e., listening, speaking, reading and writing) for individuals with autism across different ages. The four sessions that comprise this year's institute will address shared book reading, writing, using augmentative and alternative communication in the workplace, and technology tools to support literacy learning. Summer Institute sessions are designed for educators, families, service providers, and individuals with autism and related disabilities. Summer Institute online sessions are offered at no cost and registration is required. Handouts will be emailed prior to the sessions. For more information, go to <http://card.ufl.edu/summer-literacy-institute/>. To register, go to https://ufl.zoom.us/webinar/register/WN_RDX9n6pQREqV8736dgftOA.
