

NABE PARENT INSTITUTE 2013

How the Florida Department of Education
(FLDOE) Student Achievement through Language
Acquisition (SALA) Bureau Supports Parental Involvement

SALA BUREAU SUPPORTING PARENTS

- Parent Hotline 800-206-8956 on the web site

<http://www.fldoe.org/aala/omsphl.asp>

- So, who ya' gonna' call?
- Information about...
 - Testing
 - Placement
 - Instruction
 - Rights of your child
- Members of our staff fluent in Spanish and French, as well as in English

SALA BUREAU SUPPORTING PARENTS

- Workshops and training sessions designed to help you help your children.
- Contact us to schedule workshops. Members of our staff are also available to come to your area and meet with you or your group.
- Bureau Chief participated in a Polk County event for parents fall 2012
- Bureau Chief met with Latino Leadership in Orlando fall 2012

SALA BUREAU SUPPORTING PARENTS

- Oversight of implementation of META Agreement/Florida Consent Decree through ESOL monitoring (on-site, desktop and self)
 - Ensure active Parent Leadership Council (PLC)
 - Interview parents in districts
 - Require PLC chair signature on District ELL Plans

SALA BUREAU SUPPORTING PARENTS

- Oversight of implementation of NCLB Title III monitoring (on-site, desktop and self)
 - Encourage activities for parents to increase ELL academic achievement and English language acquisition
 - Interview parents in districts
 - Support parent initiatives with workshops and trainings related to helping parents assist their children in school in the US

SALA BUREAU SUPPORTING PARENTS

- Providing Information on Common Core State Standards
- Contributing to the Blast-off Tips for Parents Initiative
- Assist Parents in Signing up for FLDOE Email and Updates

