Monitoring Update

- Monitoring is complete for the 2020-21 school year!
- The first upload for the 2021-22 Monitoring cycle is due on October 31, 2021 – “Transition Supports”
- Topical Call

Questions from the Field

- When collecting and storing monitoring documentation are there any documents that the state requires be kept as hard copy or may all documentation be kept as scanned and electronic files?
- Will we only upload monitoring samples for private schools in the Equitable Services upload or throughout all monitoring uploads?
- If the focus of the October Monitoring Upload is Early Childhood Transitions, do we only upload for Elementary School or for all grade bands-like middle, or high?
- Have all districts received feedback on their 2020-2021 monitoring reviews? Are there common findings that you are able to share?

Questions from the Field

- What are some best practices of how to braid different grants such as FEFP, SAI, Title I, Title II, and Reading Categorical funds to provide a maximum number of literacy coaching support across the district at as many schools that need it, regardless of school Title I status?
- Can federal funds be used to provide transportation and other support services to foster care children ages 18-21?
