

APPENDIX D

INSERVICE EDUCATION COMPONENT NUMBER

The component number is a unique eight-digit number assigned by the district to each individual component and should remain the same during the life of the component. It is composed of the following codes:

POSITION 1: FUNCTION - A one-digit code (1-8) which identifies the primary function which is the principal focus of the component.

If the component cannot be used for certification purposes, use the following codes:

1. Instruction
2. Instructional Support
3. General Support
4. Community Services

If the component can be used for certification purposes, use the following codes:

5. Instruction
6. Instructional Support
7. General Support
8. Community Services

POSITIONS 2-3: SUBJECT AREA - A two-digit code which identifies the principal subject area within the function upon which the component focuses. Classify the component under one function only. If the component cannot be assigned to one specific subject area, record the two-digit code for "unclassified".

INSTRUCTION: Components, used with Function Numbers 1 or 5, which focus on activities which deal directly with the teaching of pupils or with pupil-teacher interaction.
