EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Rule 6A-14.092, Florida Administrative Code sets forth the adoption, posting, and reporting requirements for Florida College System institutions related to textbook and instructional materials. The proposed amendments to the Rule address syllabi requirements and changes to the list of required and recommended textbooks and instructional materials as well as a general reordering of certain sections of the rule language. The amendments to the rule will be positive changes that clarify institutional responsibilities and streamline reporting requirements as well as maximizing informed student choice.

Supporting Documentation Included: Proposed Rule 6A-14.092 F.A.C.
